ON SECRET SERVICE.

Startling Disclosure in the Armes Case.

The Accused One of Ten Picked Men, Sworn to Secrecy,

And Detailed to Closely Guard President Harrison,

Other Washington News—Corporal Tanner Makes a Welcome Ruling in Behalf of Disabled Veterans.

By Telegraph to The Times.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—[By the Associated Press.] Capt. Armes took the witness stand today before the Armes court-martial, and testified in his own behalf.

He said that Gen. Barnum had invited him to become a member of his staff, but he had declined, as he expected to serve on Gov. Beaver's staff. He made application in writing for a place on Gov. Beaver's staff, and on the 13th of February received the appointment, which he accepted. A few days later several gentlemen were, on his recommendation, appointed on the Governor's staff. On the 27th of February Gen. Hastings told witness that his appointment was a mistake, and when witness asked why his name had been taken from the list Gen. Hastings said he did not want to talk about it. Capt. Armes said he then sent a letter demanding a written explanation. Gen. Hastings in reply wrote that witness had not been appointed on the staff. Witness called at the inauguration headquarters the next day, and, after some words, Gen. Hastings lost his temper and ordered witness out of the office, but afterward apologized.

Subsequently witness was tendered a commission as special aide, which brought him nearer the President. While riding alongside the Vice-President's carriage Mr. Morton and Senator Cullom bowed to him, and he returned the salute. Capt. Gibson and Capt. Bourke dashed up at this instant, in a boisterous and drunken condition, and ordered witness out of the parade, and called on the police to aid them in ejecting him. The next day he swore out a warrant against Capt. Bourke and sent it to Lieut. Guy.

Three days after his brother told him the case had been nol pros'd the day before on account of lack of witnesses. He then went to see the Adjutant-General, and after being informed that Capt. Bourke had preferred charges against him, witness said he would send a letter preferring charges against Capt. Bourke and Capt. Gibson.

THE RIGGS HOUSE AFFAIR.

Of the assault on Gov. Beaver in the Riggs House, Armes testified that he urged Gov. Beaver to apologize, to which the Governor replied that he (Armes) must bear in mind that he was here as a private citizen, not as Governor of Pennsylvania. They were on the same platform, but he did not propose to do anything about that matter. As he turned to go away, Armes reached up his hand to snap him. The Governor considered it an insult, and some words followed. Witness asked the Court to notice that he had not reflected on Gov. Beaver in the letters he had written. He added:

"But I did not hesitate to reflect on Gen. Hastings. I said he was not a gentleman. I should have added that he was a liar and a coward."

ARMES'S SECRET COMMISSION.

In the course of a sketch of his career, Capt. Armes revealed the nature of the secret testimony given by Col. Swords and Sergeant-at-Arms Canaday. In effect it was that Armes was one of ten picked men, sworn to secrecy, who were to act as the special body-guard of the President. His orders were secret, and even Gov. Beaver did not know about them.

SIOUX LANDS.

The Government Now Offers Better Terms for Them.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—[By the Associated Press.] The act under which the Sioux Commission was yesterday appointed is similar in its general objects, provisions and form to the act passed in the first session of the Fiftieth Congress, which the Indians rejected, chiefly because of the unsatisfactory price and terms of payment offered them for the lands to be ceded thereunder. The points of difference are summarized as follows:

The Pine Ridge reservation will be extended east 18 or 20 miles, and the Rosebud reservation will be correspondingly reduced on the west. The Fiandreau Sioux, who may elect not to take allotments on the great Sioux reservation, are to be paid $1.25 per acre in lieu of allotments instead of 50 cents, as previously provided. The quantity of land to be allotted to heads of families of the Sioux nation on their diminished reservation is double the quantity previously provided.

Allotments in severalty are not to be compulsory, except as to orphans, without the consent of a majority of the male adults of the tribe. Every allotee is made a citizen of the United States, and is given the benefit of and made subject to the laws of the State or Territory within which he resides. Heads of families who desire to take allotments on the ceded lands will receive 320 acres instead of 160, and the Poncas get double the quantity on their own reservation that they would have been entitled to under the former act. Horses and mares are to be substituted for oxen in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior in the distribution of articles and things to be given to the allotees, and $50 in cash is to be expended for their benefit.

The permanent fund is increased from $1,000,000 to $3,000,000, and at the end of 50 years the fund is to be expended for the benefit of the Indians, or distributed among them. Religious societies must pay $1.25 per acre for any land they want, instead of 50 cents. The ceded lands are to be sold to settlers at $1.25 for the first three years, at 75 cents for the next two years, 50 cents for the next five years; then the Government is to pay for the remainder at the rate of 50 cents per acre. The United States pays $1.25 per acre for lands reserved for school purposes, instead of 50 cents as provided in the previous statute. Red Cloud and his band are to be paid for the ponies taken from them in 1876.

A PENSION RULING.

Commissioner Tanner Defines the Term "Total Disability."

WASHINGTON, April 23.—[By the Associated Press.] Corporal Tanner, Commissioner of Pensions, today rendered an important decision in passing upon the application of John Webb, late private in Company D, Indiana Cavalry, for an increase of pension from $24 to $30 per month. Webb is receiving the former rate of pension for varicose veins of the left leg, and asked for an increase on the ground that total disability in the foot now exists.

In granting the increase asked for the Commissioner says that in his opinion it was not the intention of Congress in using the words "total disability" to debar claimants for pensions from the benefits of the act until hand, foot, arm or leg is a worthless incumbrance, incapable of motion and completely useless for any purpose whatever. He says total disability shall be held to exist when an affected member by reason of a wound, injury or disease is useless for performing ordinary manual labor.

TAXATION IN CHINA.

Minister Denby Thinks the System Worthy of Careful Study.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—[By the Associated Press.] Charles Denby, United States Minister to China, in his report to the Department of State, says: "The system of taxation in China presents some decided contrasts to the systems in other countries. Taxes outside of Peking are paid on arable land only, the tax varying with the crop and quality of soil. Inside of the city of Peking there is no tax on land, houses or personal property. Goods through the city gates pay a tax, but are exempt from taxation afterward. The only tax on land and houses in Peking is on sales of real estate, 10% per cent. being charged on the price obtained for the property sold. There is also a tax resembling license fees. Outside of Peking Chinese subjects are liable to be called on to perform certain duties whenever the Emperor passes through their districts, but this duty may be avoided by payment of a small tax. All moneys spent on the public account in Peking come from the imperial treasury, and the expenditure is not limited to funds raised by taxation within the city. The bulk of the people in Peking pay no taxes whatever. A man who owns his house and lot, his implements of labor, enjoys his earnings without toll or deduction."

The Minister closes with the following comment on Chinese taxation as contrasted with the system of taxation in the United States:

"How different this condition is from that of our own cities, where sometimes 3 per cent. on high valuation is exacted for public purposes. To the absence of taxation of the body of the people may well be ascribed the permanence of the Government and the tranquility and contentment of the Chinese race. The lesson of taxation in China might be profitably studied by the civilized world. But in view of the national, State, county, township and city indebtedness piled mountain high, the lesson must now be valueless to the United States.

AFFAIRS ABROAD.

A VIENNA MOB FIRED UPON BY SOLDIERS.

Great Britain Enjoying a Great Commercial Boom—Egyptians Marching Against the Soudanese—Notes.

By Telegraph to The Times.

VIENNA, April 23.—The strike of carmen is nearly at an end. Rioting, however, continues. The mob today stoned the cavalry, and reinforcements of infantry were required. Many rioters were wounded and a large number arrested.

The Government today offered to supply soldiers to drive the cars. The strikers thereupon offered to resume work unconditionally.

At 10 o'clock tonight a hand to hand conflict took place between soldiers and the mob. The rioters tried to set fire to a gun factory at Hernals. The troops fired a volley into the mob and wounded many persons.

The excitement continued up to midnight. Several stores were looted.

The Commissioner of Police was nearly stoned to death by the mob, and was rescued with much difficulty by a party of dragoons.

BRITISH TRADE IMPROVING.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Consul-General Waller, at London, in a report to the Department of State, says that there has been a general revival of the trade and commerce of the United Kingdom. The returns, he says, clearly shows a decided improvement in both the volume and character of the business done in 1888 over the previous year, and this increased prosperity, which promises to continue, is not confined to any particular industry. It is apparently due to legitimate trade and not to speculation. The improvement in business is especially notable in the building industry.

MARCHING AGAINST THE SOUDANESE.

CAIRO, April 23.—A battalion of Egyptian troops, under command of the Governor of Suakim, and two gunboats, have started for Port Halaib, recently captured by the Soudanese, for the purpose of recapturing it.

RACING IN ENGLAND.

LONDON, April 23.—The first day of the Epsom spring meeting the great Metropolitan stakes, two and one-fourth miles, was won by a length by Tissaphernes.

The Jubilee handicap hurdle race, two miles, was won by the Tyke.

NOTES.

STOCKHOLM, April 23.—Princess Eugenia, sister of the King, is dead, aged 60.

EDINBURGH, April 23.—The municipal authorities voted the freedom of the city to Parnell. The vote stood 14 to 13.

BERLIN, April 23.—It is reported that Dr. von Hoecker is about to withdraw altogether from political life.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

Pauncefote, the New British Minister, Arrives.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—[By the Associated Press.] Sir Julian Pauncefote, the new British Minister to the United States, arrived here this afternoon. He was accompanied by his secretary and Michael Herbert, in charge of the legation, and was met at the station by the legation attachés.

POSTMASTERS APPOINTED.

The President today appointed a number of postmasters, among whom were the following: Edward Angel, Athaley, Id. T.; George H. Cook, Flagstaff, Ariz.

ANOTHER NEW BANK.

The Acting Comptroller of the Currency today authorized the Washington National Bank at Tacoma, Wash., to begin business with a capital of $100,000.

IN HONOR OF WASHINGTON.

The Secretary of War has ordered commanding officers at all military posts to fire a national salute of thirty-eight guns, April 30th, the centenary of the inauguration of Washington.

PALMER'S STOCK RISING.

The opinion gains strength that Frank Palmer of Illinois will be appointed Public Printer.

The War on Telegraph Wires.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Broadway, from Twenty-third to Thirty-third streets, is now entirely cleared of poles. The gang is working between Thirty-third and Forty-second streets, and expects to have that portion cleared today.

Mayor Grant has ordered the removal of all telephone and telegraph wires on Broadway, from the City Hall to Fourteenth street, and from Fourteenth to Fifty-ninth—all sorts of wires except those of the fire department. This will create havoc, as the telegraph companies, especially the Western Union, have important offices along the route. It is believed the down-town business district will be attacked next, and Wall street is beginning to be scared at the prospect of being cut off.

Made Good His Escape.

PRESCOTT (Ariz.), April 23.—The pursuit of Smith, the train-robber, who escaped in Raton Mountains, has been abandoned, as the Deputy Sheriff has telegraphed Sheriff O'Neal that they have failed to find any trace of him.

A BUSTED BOOM.

Many Settlers Returning from Oklahoma.

The Campers at Guthrie Undergoing Terrible Privations.

Food and Water Scarce—Cold Nights and Hot Days.

The Disgusted Boomers Now Prepare to Invade the Cherokee Strip—More Hopeful Reports from Purcell.

By Telegraph to The Times.

CHICAGO, April 23.—[By the Associated Press.] The Daily News' special from Guthrie, Oklahoma, via Arkansas City, says: Guthrie is plunged in seemingly inextricable confusion. The differences of rival factions to control the town have baffled the efforts of half a dozen public meetings to settle them. Excitement is at a very high pitch, and confidence is beginning to waver. The suffering of 15,000 unsheltered and unprovisioned people is something that could be endured only amid such a furor. The scenes of night and day are unexampled. Thousands are fleeing from the town and county, and thousands more are pouring in. There is a feeling of wild uncertainty and apprehension that amounts to distraction. There is no cover for the bitter cold nights and withering heat of the days. The railroad is gorged with business, and is temporarily inoperative. The townsite is changed every hour by rival parties, as each secures temporary dominance. No buildings have been started, and but few more tents have been reared. Nobody knows where the streets are, and every one is just now yielding all things else for clamor for food, drink and shelter or means of light. To complete this a disastrous wreck occurred just south of the town during the forenoon. A freight and passenger train met heads on, and both engines went into the ditch. No one was hurt, but the track was blockaded for hours.

NO FOOD, NO WATER,

The sight at Guthrie upon which the sun rose this morning has probably never before been witnessed in the history of the world. A majority of the 15,000 people lay blanketless upon the ground, either guarding their claims or slumbering where they had fallen from fatigue. On the depot platform they lay as close as corded wood, and in the few tents they were crowded in huddled masses. As many as could took the meager shelter afforded, but there quickly came a limit to the capacity, beyond which neither tears nor bribes could prevail. Among the thousands stretched upon the ground many were of respectable quality. Those who could not sleep, and they were legion, in the stinging cold, were bunched in groups, swearing or weeping, as suited their spirits. The sun fairly leaped out of the prairie and within two hours the cold had been supplanted with a Sahara heat. The wind rose, but without cooling effect, and blew that scorched the flesh and filled the air with blinding alkali dust. To complete the general misfortune the only large tent, accommodating 150 people, fell under the stress of the furnace blast. It could not be repaired, and other tents could scarcely be mounted. The climate provoked an insatiable thirst, and water was the first supply to fail. There is a little stream hard by, but the water is too strongly alkaline to drink. The railroad tank that takes its supply by a gravity pipe from a distant and elevated spring afforded the only possible drinkable water, and it is brackish. It was attacked by thousands of people until the railway officials called in military protection under the pretense that they needed the water to operate the road. A tankman, however, sold water at 5 cents a pint thereafter, as did locomotive engineers from the tanks of their engines. The railroad seems to be completely prostrated and does not deliver the baggage of the suffering throng.

PNEUMONIA AND SUNSTROKES

are beginning to claim their victims, but the sick have neither refuge nor sympathy. The whole scene, in its countless varied and painful details, is simply indescribable. Here stands a big city out of doors and without supplies.

REV. JAMES.

HIS ECCLESIASTICAL TRIAL COMMENCED.

Actions of a Lunatic Rather Than of a Sane Man—Something About His Former History Dug Up by the San Francisco Examiner.

The Rev. Dr. James's examination was opened in Long Beach yesterday. The reverend gentleman went down Monday evening and was closely followed by the trial committee, which is composed of Presiding Elder Rev. Van Cleve, Dr. Bovard (attorney for the prosecution), Rev. Dr. Williams (attorney for the defendant), Rev. Will A. Knighten, Dr. R. S. Cantine, Rev. Dr. Trun, Rev. T. C. Warner, Rev. S. F. Woodcock, Rev. Dr. Wilson, Rev. Dr. F. Cobb and Rev. Dr. Pole (secretary).

The committee went down one day ahead for the reason that they were anxious to look over the field and have everything in readiness for the opening of the examination.

As soon as James left the train he disappeared and was not again seen until he put in an appearance at the house where his wife and children are stopping. He made a demand for his children and was promptly refused admission to the house and told that he could not even see his children. This so enraged him that he swore a blue streak and declared that he would have his children or leave his dead body on the battlefield. He was finally induced to leave the premises, but he did not go to his lodgings. He walked up and down the streets all night and acted more like a lunatic than a sane man.

When the trial began yesterday morning James did not show up, and no one seemed to know what had become of him. The trial is being carried on with closed doors, but the evidence is of such a filthy nature that it would be impossible to print it. Monday's Examiner gives Mr. James the following send-off:

Rev. Mr. James, minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Long Beach, Los Angeles county, also F. R. S. and several other large and well-made English capitals, who is accused of maltreating his wife, of being almost too kind to some of the female members of his congregation, and of being too generous or too indiscreet an employer to his pretty female amanuensis, is well known in San Francisco and Oakland.

Rev. Dr. Harcourt of this city said to a reporter: "I knew this man James very well. He came to me with a very flattering letter of recommendation from Rev. Dr. John Coyle of Napa, formerly of Oakland. Mr. James wanted to organize a class in my church for memory culture, but I gave him no encouragement.

HE WAS TOO SANCTIMONIOUS.

"I took a dislike to him as soon as I saw him—it was, I might say, an intuitive aversion. He wore a long black frock coat, reaching almost to his heels, and he had too much of a ministerial air altogether. He was altogether too sanctimonious.

"He made great pretensions to being a man of culture, but in conversation with him I found his knowledge very shallow, and this increased my distrust of him.

"I understand that he instructed a class in mnemonics about a year ago in Oakland, where he lived, and I believe he left that place in bad odor. Another thing that made me suspect him was the fact that he was without employment, notwithstanding his stories about influential acquaintances and rare excellencies of mind. I said to myself: 'If this man is all he says he is, or even half of that, he would not be out of employment long.'"

DR. HARCOURT WINKED.

Mr. Harcourt paused here, and to the reporter's horror closed his left eye in a most unsanctified wink.

"Was he a regularly ordained minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church?"

"I think not. In fact I have heard that he was not."

"How then could he have been assigned to the pastorate of the Long Beach Church?"

"Whenever the pastorate of a church becomes vacant through resignation, death or otherwise, the elder of the church has a right to fill the vacancy until the next session of the conference, and a church that is not able to support a pastor may be supplied with a cheap man or a layman. I think that church had had some reverses, the real-estate boom being over."

"James professed to be a member of several learned societies in England, but the names he gave of these societies were found to be fictitious—no such societies being in existence. He was not more than thirty-five years old, and in addition to his clerical appearance his hobby was social purity and memory culture. He pretended that in a few lessons he could teach a man to memorize a lecture or a sermon, and to repeat it without putting down a word of it on paper."

THE LADIES LIONIZED HIM.

Rev. E. R. Dille of Oakland said:

"I first heard of Rev. Mr. James in Sacramento, where he delivered a lecture before the New Zealand Astronomical Association. He told several people after that that he had been asked by the Lick trustees to deliver lectures on the great Lick telescope.

"The Ebell Society in Oakland afterwards took him up five or six years ago, and he lectured before them for an evening or two. He said that he was on the most intimate terms with Disraeli, Ruskin, Tennyson and other great men, and pretended that he was a Fellow of the Royal Society (F.R.S.) and a Fellow of the Royal Astronomical Society (F.R.A.S.), and he wrote those initials after his name.

"He is a glib fellow with the most unlimited assurance. The ladies lionized him. He so ingratiated himself with the Women's Temperance Union here that he gave a lecture under their auspices. His knowledge was of the smattering order, and many of the cultured people of Oakland saw through his pretensions. They detected him in his lectures stealing passages bodily from Edward Everett, and that caused them to distrust him.

"He said and did many silly things that bore on their face the impress of falsehood. For instance, he said that he told the Royal Astronomer at Greenwich how the cupola of the Lick telescope was worked, and that the Royal Astronomer bent his own head on the table and exclaimed: 'Ah! how stupid I was not to have thought of that myself!' On another occasion, in one of his lectures, he told about a battle in the Mediterranean, when the shot and shell of one of the contending forces gave out and they loaded their cannon with several thousand gross of Bute's liver pills. When these were discharged the enemy left their guns and went to the side of the vessel, completely overcome by the alimentative power of the pills. He used to talk just such nonsense as that.

"I asked how it was that he had been given fellowships in so many learned societies without having gone through the regular collegiate course, or, without having been the author of some notable work, and he replied that the exception had been made in his case because of valuable services that he had rendered to those societies."

"Was he ever ordained a minister?"

"Oh, yes, he was a Methodist minister in Nevada for a long time, and up to about a year ago was pastor of a little church in Cedarville, Modoc county. A great many people wondered why a man of his professed ability should live and labor in a place so obscure, and he told them that it was a matter altogether of his own choice—that he preferred a quiet place in which he could pursue his scientific studies undisturbed.

HE WORRIED THE WOMEN.

"Certain scandalous reports followed him to Oakland from Nevada and Cedarville about his treatment of his wife, and scandals arose here because of his ungentlemanly and unprofessional conduct towards certain Oakland church ladies, but the ladies wishing to avoid notoriety made no formal complaint against him.

"A lady came to me only a few weeks ago and wanted me to go to the editor of a San Francisco paper and have the misdeeds of James made public.

"He was a crank on the subject of social purity. When he was here about a year ago or more he preached to my congregation, and in his sermon he said that he had been around town the night before, and had learned from actual observation that there was between 300 and 400 professional fallen women in Oakland. This the Chief of Police afterward informed me was not true, and that the number of professional lewd women did not amount to a tenth of that number. Mr. James also published a pamphlet here on the subject of social purity. He contended that man should discipline himself so that he would have perfect self-control to resist the temptations of the flesh, and he instanced himself as an example."

"How did he get into the church at Long Beach?"

"He went to Long Beach on the invitation of Chautauqua Circle, and his salary was fixed at $800 a year.

"I have heard that he delivered a lecture in St. Helena for the benefit of a minister's widow. He was to receive half of the proceeds. The proceeds amounted to $70. Of this he took his half and borrowed the other half from the widow. Then he borrowed about $200 besides; but I believe that he paid her afterwards. He also bought a piano of Ina Coolbrith, the poetess, and there was difficulty over the payment, but I think he finally settled the bill.

"Mrs. James is a thorough lady. She was studying medicine in Los Angeles while her husband was at Long Beach with his amanuensis. She was a delicate, refined woman, and it is my opinion that James was in the habit of terrorizing her. He was, to my mind, an English bully."

A GENTLEMAN AND A SCHOLAR.

A lady of high standing in Oakland spoke of Mr. James as a gentleman and a scholar. She was not aware that he had ever had any trouble with his wife. When he brought out his book on "Social Purity" he did all the work himself. He kept a printing press at home and set the type himself. The book was supposed to be a guide for parents as to the manner in which they should bring up their children. Many people condemned it at the time because of the delicate matters it touched upon, but others thought it an excellent work.

"I am sure it was written in all sincerity. I knew Charles Harris, who is now implicated with him in the charges, but he was then a mere boy, scarcely 14 years of age."

Mrs. James Cameron said that she had known the Rev. Mr. James while he was in Oakland, and had found him to be an excellent conversationalist. She thought his work on "Social Purity" a valuable one for the guidance of parents.

Miss S. P. Sherman of 1378 Franklin street, at whose house James made his home while in Oakland, said that she had at first taken it for granted that Mr. James was quite a gentleman, but had, together with other people, found out from later reports that he was not exactly what he represented himself to be. These reports had come from Nevada City and other places where Mr. James had resided. The nature of the reports Miss Sherman did not wish to state. She was anxious to contradict the statement that Mr. James was not a member of certain English societies. She knew positively that he was a fellow of the Royal Astronomical Society, and had seen his name printed in a list of members following close after that of Prof. Holden. She also knew that he was a member of the English Geographical Society.

PAY UP OR SHUT UP.

The Non-payers of License Brought to Taw.

Early yesterday morning a Chinaman named Lung was arrested for doing business without a license, but was released on paying up.

About an hour later G. L. Mesnager, the wholesale liquor man on Los Angeles street, was brought in on a warrant charging him with the same offense. He deposited $10 and was released.

At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon A. J. Flores, who conducts a liquor business at No. 101 North Main street, was brought in by Officer Fowler on a warrant charging him with selling liquor without a license, and he was released on depositing cash bail.

There has been a great deal of latitude allowed business men generally, and saloon-keepers in particular, in regard to paying their licenses, but since the developments in the Fancher case, where a place ran for eight or nine months without paying license, there has been an awakening all along the line, and those who do not pay up promptly will be arrested and prosecuted.

FLOWER FESTIVAL.

"A BREATH OF BALM IN A FIELD OF CLOVER."

An Off-day in Point of Exercises—A Welcome Retreat from the Glare and Heat of the Day—Notes and Personals.

The Flower Festival was a welcome retreat last night to those who had been routed by the heat of the day. The sun-laden atmosphere did not last until night, and the beauty-clad hall was doubly refreshing. There were even quite a number of persons who escaped from the glare outside during the day into the flower-scented hall. Yesterday was what might be termed an off-day of the festival. There were loads of fresh flowers and the usual number of pretty girls and matrons, but no spectacular or other effects were attempted. Those who visited the hall, day and night, had the opportunity to commune with Nature both in its human and divine shapes without any bewildering distractions. The concert at night by the Seventh Regiment Band was enjoyed, the programme being popularly selected. Tonight the cantata so much enjoyed last Wednesday night, "The Flower Queen," will be repeated. The cast in this pretty musical allegory embraces a number of the popular singers of the city. It is not by any means an amateurish production, and those who have not heard, as well as those who have, will be entertained by witnessing its production.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

Friday night the tableaux will be given again.

The pink and pansy booth is so in fact as well as in name. Not another kind of flower can be seen there.

Mrs. H. R. Smith and Mrs. Rankin of Central avenue contributed a bountiful supply of lemons to the lemon booth.

H. A. Unruh presented the festival with two boxes, containing several thousand roses of beautiful varieties, from Arcadia, a superb donation.

The ladies want donations of lemons, Chinese lemons, pepper branches and rose geraniums daily.

The lunches are given from 11 to 2 o'clock daily.

Miss Field donated a choice collection of roses.

Mrs. A. L. Austin sent some beautiful roses and orange blossoms yesterday.

At the bulbous booth yesterday was a donation from Cahuenga, sent by Mrs. Jacob Miller, of French plums, Pepina plums, and a collection of cheremoya, St. John's "Bread of Life."

George Byram sent a choice collection of flowers.

A lovely collection of roses and other flowers was contributed by George Byram.

Mrs. Dr. Schorb's contribution yesterday was 700 beautiful roses, embracing 40 varieties.

The milk-shake booth is a recent attraction at the festival. The children enjoy the miniature milch cow at the rear of the booth, and its curious mechanism.

The heat of the past few days has knocked the flowers "silly," and they would have presented a wilted appearance had it not been for the generous contributions, by which all were renewed.

The perpetual moss at the end of the rose booth is interesting, and the tiny Miss Lawrence a curiosity in miniature.

The Los Angeles Orphans' Home turned out 72 strong at the hall yesterday, and enjoyed an ice at the ice-cream booth.

The school children of Garvanza sent a fine display of carefully picked and packed wildflowers to the wild flower booth.

Mrs. R. M. Widney furnished a lovely collection of flowers yesterday for the newspaper booth.

GRANT MARTIN.

His Mysterious Disappearance Last Saturday.

Three years ago Grant Martin married a pretty little black-eyed girl who had just reached her 17th year. The parents of the bride objected to the marriage, but they were overruled, as is usually the case. The young couple lived in San Francisco a while, when they moved down here. Martin procured employment in the Los Angeles Abstract Company's office. Things went smoothly, with the exception of a few "tears" on the part of the husband, who had a fondness for liquor. Their first-born, a girl, was left in San Francisco with Mrs. Martin's parents, and another girl baby was born about eight months ago, and is now alone with its deserted mother at No. 347½ South Spring street, in room 9.

Learning that Mrs. Martin had been deserted by her husband a TIMES reporter called on her last night. The little woman showed signs of great suffering, but she put the best face possible on the affair and told the following story:

"I last saw my husband Saturday morning at 7 o'clock. He said nothing about leaving me, but on the contrary he told me to come down to the abstract office at 5 o'clock in the evening to go to dinner with him, as I was in the habit of doing. At that hour I visited the office, and was surprised to learn that he had taken the east-bound overland train. He went with a man named Sullivan. Several of the boys saw him, but he said he was only going to the train to see Sullivan off, but one of them saw him get his ticket and board the train."

Mrs. Martin is confident that he had no money, and she blames Sullivan for his sudden disappearance. She is of the opinion that they have gone to Oklahoma. She says that her husband is related to the well-known merchant, J. S. Tabor, of San Francisco, and that she also comes from a good family. Her husband left her without any means, but she has friends here who are willing to send her to her parents in San Francisco. She says she will never live with her husband again, but she wishes to remain a few days to see if she cannot hear from him or learn why he left her in such an unceremonious manner.

Farewell Banquet.

Dr. J. Kurtz was tendered a farewell banquet at the Maison Doreé Restaurant, on First street, last night by a number of his professional friends, to celebrate the Doctor's departure on his European trip. The Doctor, accompanied by his family, will leave Thursday for New York, where they will be joined by his son, who has just graduated from the medical college in that city. The entire party will then sail for Germany, where the family will remain for a year. The Doctor expects to return in about six months.

NOT A SQUARE DEAL.

The Exhibit of Southern California with the State Board.

When the State Board of Trade was organized, with headquarters in San Francisco, it was given out that the very best exhibits that could be secured from every section of the State would be made. All of the boards of trade and chambers of commerce in the State were jubilant, and products of all kinds were sent to the State Board, which is located in the Grand Hotel in San Francisco.

Secretary Ward of the Los Angeles Board of Trade visited San Francisco a few days ago, and while in that city he spent several hours looking through the rooms of the board, and he made some startling discoveries. He found that the Los Angeles exhibit is a measly little collection which might have cost 60 cents, spread on a snide stand that did not cost to exceed $2.50. The San Diego exhibit is of the same kind, and consists of an ear of corn and a few played-out oranges.

On the other hand, Fresno and a number of other counties have magnificent displays. Some of the cases in which the displays are made cost as high as $500, and are gotten up in great style.

Mr. Ward is at a loss to know where the blame lies. It may be the fault of the people down here, and it may be jealousy on the part of the managers of the Northern Citrus Belt boom, but it is very certain that something should be done at once. Southern California has products from which could be made an exhibit such as but few sections of the world can overshadow, and yet the San Francisco exhibit is so snide that a Digger Indian camp would be ashamed of it.

There are between 200 and 700 visitors every day, and they are all anxious to see the Southern California exhibit. Before Mr. Ward left the place he offered to pay the expense of throwing the Los Angeles exhibit in the bay, but the manager was afraid to touch it.

CELESTIN

Arrested for Resisting Humane Officer Wright.

Officer Wright of the Humane Society occasionally gets a pretty rough deal in the discharge of his duty, but he generally gets his man just the same. Several days ago Jack Skinner called at the police station to enter complaint against Officer Rich for not arresting a man at Celestin's stable, on Los Angeles street, for brutally beating a horse, and stating that he was willing to appear as a witness against either the policeman or the brutal driver. Mr. Wright, as is customary in such cases, went to the stable to investigate the matter. Celestin, the proprietor, who is a very hot-blooded Frenchman, was found in his office, and when the officer stated his business ordered him out, saying that he had no business about his place, and refused to give him any satisfaction. Mr. Wright attempted to reason with the irate liveryman, but to no avail, and to save trouble left the office and went outside and sat down in a chair. Celestin followed him out and ordered him away, and when he declined to go, pulled the chair from under him, and would have assaulted him, Wright says, but for his age. Mr. Wright, not wishing to get into trouble, came up town and swore out a complaint before Justice Stanton, charging Celestin with resisting an officer. A warrant was issued, and Celestin was arrested by Officer Gilbert and brought into court, when he was put under $200 bonds and released. The case will probably be an interesting one when it comes to trial.

DISEASED BLOOD.

Humors, Blotches, Sores, Scales, Crusts and Loss of Hair Cured.

Terrible Blood Poison. Suffered all a man could suffer and live. Face and body covered with awful sores. Used the Cuticura Remedies ten weeks and is practically cured. A remarkable case.

I contracted a terrible blood poisoning a year ago. I doctored with two good physicians, neither of whom did me any good. I suffered all a man can suffer and live. Hearing of your CUTICURA REMEDIES I concluded to try them, knowing if two did me no good they could make me no worse. I have been using them about ten weeks, and am most happy to say that I am almost rid of the sores that covered my face and body. My face was as bad, if not worse, than that of Miss Boynton, spoken of in your book, and I would say to any one in the same condition, to use CUTICURA, and they will surely be cured. You may use this letter in the interests of suffering humanity.

E. W. REYNOLDS, Ashland, Ohio.

Covered with Running Sores 17 years.

I have been troubled with a skin and scalp disease for seventeen years. My head at times was one running sore, and my body was covered with them as large as a half dollar. I tried a great many remedies without effect until I used the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and I am thankful to state that after two months of their use I am entirely cured. I feel it my duty to you and the public to state the above case. L. R. MCDOWELL, Jamesburg, N. J.

Dug and Scratched 38 years.

I go Mr. Dennis Downing ten years better. I have dug and scratched for thirty-eight years. I had what is termed pruritis, and have suffered everything and tried a number of doctors, but got no relief. Anybody could have got $500 had they cured me. The CUTICURA REMEDIES cured me. God bless the man who invented CUTICURA!

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE For CATARRH.

Relief Instantaneous. Cure Rapid, Radical and Permanent.

No single disease has entailed more suffering or hastened the breaking up of the constitution than Catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice, one or more, and sometimes all, yield to its destructive influence. The poison it distributes throughout the system attacks every vital force, and injures the most robust of constitutions. Ignored because but little understood, by most physicians, impotently assailed by quacks and charlatans, those suffering from it have little hope to be relieved. It is time, then, that the popular treatment of this terrible disease by remedies within the reach of all passed into hands at once competent and trustworthy. The new and hitherto untried method adopted by Dr. Sanford in the preparation of his RADICAL CURE has won the hearty approval of thousands. It is instantaneous in affording relief in all head colds, sneezing, snuffling and obstructed breathing, and rapidly removes the most oppressive symptoms, clearing the head, sweetening the breath, restoring the sense of smell and taste, and neutralizing the constitutional tendency of the disease towards the lungs, liver and kidneys.

Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh

Consists of one bottle of the RADICAL CURE, one box of CATARRHAL SOLVENT, and IMPROVED INHALER, all in one package; price, $1. Ask for SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE. Sold everywhere.

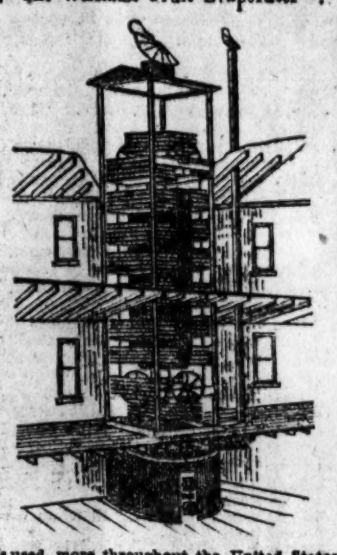
-:- The Williams Fruit Evaporator -:-



Is used more throughout the United States than any machine made. It will evaporate more fruit or the amount of tray surface with less labor than any other machine. Therefore it is the most economical and cheapest. Hundreds of them are in use throughout the Northern States for apples, while in the peach district in the Southern States there are ten to one of any other machine made. They are pronounced by those who use them, and have used others in connection, to be the only practical machine. Last year, 1888, seven were bought by different parties in Ventura county, this State, the same parties owning machines, gave preference to the Williams, as others have done before them. I have a carload of these machines on hand now, but as there are several parties about purchasing now, as there will be more orders than I have machines now to fill, some orders will have to be filled at the factory, therefore send in your orders early. Send for catalogue and price-list to COUNT HERBERT BISMARCK will preside at the Samoan conference.

BANK robberies are all the rage just now. Another was attempted in Ventura yesterday.

MAYOR GRANT of New York is doing good work in chopping down the objectionable telegraph poles.

OKLAHOMA had one or two killings yesterday, but the citizens promptly took after the murderers, and they will be dealt with expeditiously if caught.

THE Chicago Inter Ocean accuses the New York World of taking the Samoan disaster dispatch, which the Inter Ocean characterizes as "the finest piece of work done by the Associated Press in a year," and making it "Special to the New York World." That is small business for a big paper like the World.

MR. FERRY, the Washington Territory Commissioner to the Paris Exhibition, and at present the most-talked-of man at the French capital, is really to be commiserated. To find his wife in a compromising position with a French dry-goods salesman was bad enough, but to have the erring consort add insult to injury by biting a portion of her liege lord's nose off was enough to aggravate a saint.

ASSISTANT POSTMASTER-GENERAL CLARKSON says that within three months there will be a hundred fourth class postoffices established within the Territory of Oklahoma, and that he proposes, as far as he is able, to follow up the progress of immigration with a speedy and prompt delivery of the mail. In his opinion, in less than six months, there will be a hundred thousand people located in Oklahoma.

STATEMENTS having been made in two local papers to the effect that Rev. T. De Witt Talmage had been taken suddenly ill on Sunday and had to call on the assistant pastor to preach, THE TIMES made telegraphic inquiries, through the Associated Press, and is able to assert that the statement published by the over-zealous and croaking contemporaries is false. Mr. Talmage did preach the sermon published in THE TIMES on Sunday. The fact that the reverend gentleman has not been sick will be a relief to thousands of friends and admirers everywhere.

IT seems that the cattle quarantine act, to which we have previously referred, is not the only example of blundering incompetence—or something worse—on the part of the recent Legislature. Investigations regarding that act have led to the discovery of another glaring blunder in the printed statutes, resulting in the publication of two acts, almost identical, but with a material section in one which is absent in the other. One of the bills which the lower House never passed was signed by the Speaker, and passed both the Senate and Governor, who also approved the amended act. Heaven only knows how many similar complications are lying dormant, awaiting discovery in the statutes which the late unlamented Legislature has thrust upon a suffering State.

REFERRING to a circular issued by the State Board of Trade, we stated a few days ago that we had no confidence in any scheme for advertising the resources of Southern California which depended on the good will of the Northern Citrus Belt to carry through. Confirmation of these views comes in the report given in another column of a visit made by Secretary Ward of the Los Angeles Board of Trade to the State Board rooms in San Francisco, where he found the Los Angeles and San Diego exhibits so despicable as to cause any public-spirited Southern Californian to blush with shame. We have all along maintained, and shall still maintain, that Southern California must toot her own horn. The northern folks are very nice people, but they are working for No. 1, as they have a perfect right to. We must do the same.

THE SANTA MONICA WHARF.

The citizens of Santa Monica have made up their minds that they must have a wharf, and, moreover, that the only sure way to get one is to build it themselves. Accordingly, they have taken the matter in hand, and now have sufficient subscriptions to guarantee them in going ahead with the building of the wharf, which they propose to do. No sooner, however, was it apparent that the people of Santa Monica meant business than rumors were circulated that the Southern Pacific intended to take the matter in hand and push it to completion. This talk is regarded by the long-headed Santa Monicans—and probably wisely so—as a game of bluff on the part of the Southern Pacific of Kentucky, which corporation destroyed the wharf that once existed at Santa Monica, in order to divert the shipping business to San Pedro. Again, two years ago, when there was some talk of building a wharf, the Southern Pacific applied to the Santa Monica town trustees for a franchise, which was granted them. The two years expire next month, and it is the opinion of many that all the company desires is to try and have the franchise extended still further, so as to keep anything from being done.

The Southern Pacific has kept Santa Monica back long enough. If the citizens of that beautiful little city are wise, they will go right ahead, build their wharf themselves, and run it themselves, without paying attention to any rumors or promises. The Southern Pacific no longer has a monopoly here. There are plenty of other roads which will be glad to assist Santa Monica in building up the shipping business which rightfully belongs to it, but which has hitherto been diverted by the selfish policy of a greedy corporation.

REMOVE THE POLES!

Property-owners along the routes of the electric railway are very indignant at the continued refusal of the Council to take action in removing those always hideous and now useless obstructions which were erected by the company. The company has had more than ample time to resume operations, but nothing has been done, nor is there any visible prospect that anything will be done to give the public the service to which it is entitled by the franchise, or, indeed, any service at all. The franchise, therefore, is, and for a long time has been, forfeited. As regards the section on Seventh street from Wall to Alameda, the poles were erected there in spite of an energetic protest on part of the property-owners along the route, and have never once been used since they were erected, yet, notwithstanding this, the Council invariably "postpones for a week" action on the petitions which are continually addressed to it on the subject. It would not be surprising if the property-owners should take a hint from the action of New York's Mayor in relation to the telegraph poles in that city; should hire a gang of men and chop the poles down one night, leaving the city to remove the débris. Citizens would judge such a course leniently in this instance. There is a time when patience ceases to be a virtue.

OUR INDUSTRIAL EXPOSITION.

The Board of Directors of the Industrial Exposition of Southern California met and organized yesterday. A committee was appointed to advertise for a site, and as soon as that is selected the buildings will be begun at once, in order to have them ready for the exposition in the fall. This undertaking is a step in the right direction, and if conducted with spirit, as well as judgment, will prove of great benefit to Southern California. This section has fallen too much to the rear of late, through lack of zeal in continuing the good work of advertising our resources, which we carried out so bravely a few years ago. The northern part of the State has, on the contrary, been bending every energy to attract immigration, and has secured many settlers who started for this section. The proposed exposition should not be confined to a few wagon loads of phenomenal pumpkins, mournful-looking melons and gigantic ears of corn, but should include everything that is representative of Southern California, and should be made both instructive and amusing. A promenade concert might be furnished every evening, by a good orchestra, after the style of the Annual Mechanics' Pavilion Exposition in San Francisco, which is the most popular resort in the city while it is open.

SCIENTISTS have been calling attention to the wear and tear on the nerves caused by the noises of a large city. American cities are far behind those of Europe in the regulation of these matters. In Berlin, heavy wagons cannot run on certain streets. In Paris any carload of rattling material must be fastened until it cannot rattle. Munich allows no bells on street cars. In Philadelphia church bells have been held a nuisance in certain neighborhoods by judicial ruling. Steam whistles are forbidden in nearly all the larger cities of this country, and most of these noises in our advanced stage of civilization are utterly unnecessary. Clocks and watches are now so cheap and plentiful that steam whistles and bells to denote the time are useless. Why should not all useless noises, and nearly all are useless, be suppressed?

AMUSEMENTS.

LOS ANGELES THEATER.—Reilly & Wood's great show attracted another crowded house last night. This is by far the best variety company that ever visited Los Angeles. Everything is clean, and the fun is of the highest order. The wonderful flying leap from the dome of the theater by Miss Lizzie Valdis never fails to create a sensation. The same bill this evening.

AT THE GRAND.—Another good house greeted Little Lord Fauntleroy last night. Many of the same faces that were noticed on the opening night were again present, which proves that the "craze" is taking possession of Los Angeles. Flossy Ethyl appeared in the title rôle last night, and won the hearts of the audience. The little miss, who is but 7 years of age, reads her lines with a distinctness and understanding that is seldom met with in children. It would seem that Mr. French's infant stars were born for the character, for they take to it as kindly as if it had been constructed for their special benefit.

The little Lord again tonight, and a matinée this afternoon.

MINSTRELS.—Goodyear, Cook & Dillon's minstrels are announced for a week's engagement at the Grand, commencing next Monday evening, with Wednesday and Saturday matinées.

SHAKESPEARE CLUB.

Annual Banquet Held Last Evening.

Last evening the club of Angelefio Heights celebrated the natal day of the immortal bard by a grand banquet. The club, some 50 in number, assembled in the parlors of Bethany Church, where the feast was laid. Delicate china, dainty napery and a profusion of flowers gave it the elegance of a private entertainment. Some of the ladies and gentlemen were in costume which added much to the brightness of the scene.

At 9 o'clock the goodly companie sat down to the festal board, and wit if not wine flowed right merrily. "Hamlet," in a fascinating outfit of white and silver, presided as toastmaster, and the following toasts were aptly and some of them brilliantly responded to: "The Day We Celebrate," Mr. Gilfillan; "Character of Shakespeare," Mrs. W. A. Spalding; "The Ladies," D. C. Morrison; "The Gentlemen," Miss Whitely; "Shakespeare in Literature," J. B. Millard; "The Avon Club," Mrs. Pinney.

After the toasts and responses to roll-call, "Imogen" gave an inimitable recitation; Mrs. F. L. Thayer, a soprano solo; "Ophelia," "Catherine of Arragon" and "Romeo," a trio, and the poet of the club, "Portia," finished the evening's programme with one of her happiest efforts. The following ladies and gentlemen were in character:

Mrs. Russell, "The Nurse," in black gown, with cap and surplice.
Mrs. Ransome, "Ophelia," in white embroidered silk and lace.
Mrs. S. G. Millard, "Portia," in white and lavender, powdered hair.
Mrs. B. P. Ward, "Queen Catherine," in black lace, with powdered hair.
Mrs. C. Stilson, "Octavia," in brown brocaded silk, with gold diadem.
Mrs. J. B. Millard, in blue and white, powdered hair.
Miss Root, "Imogen," white and blue.
Miss Galbraith, "Desdemona," in white silk.
Miss Spear, "Lady Macbeth," in white, with the fateful dagger.
Miss Whitely as fair "Juliet," in white wool.
S. G. Millard as "Hamlet," in a silken costume of white and silver.
Mr. McKee, "Romeo," in scarlet velvet.
C. Stilson, in gown and cap of somber hue, as "Cardinal Campius."
Mr. Morrison and Dr. Hamilton, "The Two Dromios," in suits and masks.

One of the "Dromios" dealt in the usual gallant manner with the toast to "the ladies," while "Juliet" handled "the gentlemen" with quite as much facility and merriment.

The menus and favors were dainty and appropriate.

The officers of the club are: President, E. E. Goldraith; vice-president, Miss M. E. Stilson; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. J. B. Millard.

Probably Fatal Accident.

Last night the police station was telephoned to have the patrol wagon meet train No. 20, at the Southern Pacific depot, and take charge of a Chinaman who had been seriously hurt by being struck by the engine near Pomona. The Chinaman proved to have sustained serious internal injuries, and was spitting blood when he was brought to the station. Dr. Wing was on hand, but the friends of the man wanted him taken to his home in New Chinatown, which was done. Inquiry among the heathens failed to develop anything about the accident, as they shut up like clams, nor could the man be found. One Chinaman, however, said that it was thought he would die, as he was struck in the back of the neck, and his chest was crushed.

Mr. McClurg's Wife.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] Will you please correct statement made in your paper of the 12th, saying I went to Los Angeles as the mistress of Gilbert McClurg. I went as his wife, lived as his wife and am his wife. Very respectfully, MRS. M. G. MCCLURG, 725 Eddy street, San Francisco, Cal.

McConnell's Burglaries.

Several of the articles of jewelry found in McConnell's trunk have been identified as stolen property. There will probably be at least half a dozen separate charges of burglary against him before the authorities get through.

A BUSTED BOOM.

Guthrie a posse of thirty men was organized, and overtook the murderer about twelve miles north. He refused to surrender and was killed by a volley. Reference to the entry books show that his name was probably C. J. Land.

DISAPPOINTED BOOMERS.

A meeting of Oklahoma boomers disappointed in securing claims was held in the Opera house in Arkansas City, Kan., this evening. There was a very large and enthusiastic attendance. Speeches were made denouncing the manner in which Oklahoma was settled. It was freely declared that large bodies of men passed as United States Marshals in order to get into the country, and selected the best claims, and that this was unfair to law-abiding citizens. They came to secure homes, and as they could not get them in Oklahoma they were going to have them in the Cherokee Strip.

THEY WILL INVADE THE STRIP.

About 500 men in Arkansas City tonight have pledged themselves to go tomorrow to the Cherokee Strip and stake claims, and let the consequences be what they may. The beauty and fertility of this strip, so useless to the Indians and of profit only to Texas cattle kings, have been remarked upon heretofore by Daily News correspondents. There seems nothing unreasonable in opening it up at once, and to do so will avert the great trouble that now seems inevitable. There is a pressure of surplus people driven back here from Oklahoma and awaiting in the Territory the first chance to get out, that must be relieved. The baffled settlers here are

EARNEST AND UNDISMAYED.

They will execute their purpose. The troops in this region fortunately are in command of Capt. Jack Hayes, an old frontiersman and a discreet officer. There is, nevertheless, going to be a great turmoil in the Cherokee Strip unless the Government at Washington at once intervenes.

A BRIGHTER VIEW.

MATTERS MUCH MORE HOPEFUL IN PURCELL.

The Tough Element All Flocking to Guthrie—How Claim-Jumpers Encountered a Bad Man of the Border.

By Telegraph to The Times.

ST. LOUIS, April 23.—[By the Associated Press.] The Republic's Purcell (I. T.) special says: Advices from every point in the Territory of Oklahoma indicate that every available quarter section of land is already taken along the line of the Atchison railroad and Osage trails, which run from Guthrie to Kingfisher, and from Oklahoma City to Ft. Reno. The occupants of the soil have taken possession of their claims by pitching tents, and in many cases erecting rude log cabins or frame structures.

The Kingfisher land officer was opened today and entries are reported to have been more numerous than they were at Guthrie. The country is beginning to wear a settled look, and although the appearance of things is rude it is and evident fact that the crisis is past, and that out of the rush and strife and bitterness of years the country has been settled with less sacrifice than has always been feared and predicted.

There is a bad crowd in Guthrie now which was in Purcell before the Territory was opened and went up to Guthrie for the purpose of running gambling houses, dancing halls, dens, etc., and making what they could out of the boom. They did not succeed in getting lots in the heart of the city, the location necessary to success in business, and today they began efforts to drive somebody off his holding. They were unfortunate in selecting their victim. They made claim to a lot owned and occupied by "Wash" Rogers, who is deputy United States internal revenue collector for Oklahoma district, and who is a BAD MAN TO IMPOSE UPON.

Rogers resisted the claim, and the dance-house men then proposed that they should occupy all that part of the lot not covered by Rogers's tent. Rogers then refused this, and they attempted to take forcible possession. Rogers pulled a Winchester and compelled the evacuation of the premises. The Dodge City men threaten to renew the trouble.

Guthrie is in great need of the perfection of her municipal government. There is now collected there a population of 15,000 or 16,000 souls, and among them is a large percentage of criminals and vicious classes. The long platform of the depot is packed with humanity. At the arrival of every train the crowd surges over the tracks and fills the space on the opposite side of the coaches. It includes some of the

mainly confidence men, bunco men and pickpockets. Two detectives have been employed, but all they can do is to warn parties that they are spotted, and give them three hours to leave the city. No arrests have been made, and the crooks who choose to remain can do so at their own risk. Guthrie is in the midst of one of the wildest booms ever seen in the West. Her hotels are crowded, but still the run of business is at the depot. Her postoffice is demanding more clerical aid. Her banks are doing a heavy business. Lumber is commanding the of $300 a thousand feet on her side-tracks.

But there are other rival towns along the line of the Atchison road which claim that Guthrie's boom will soon collapse and they are aspiring for a title for the capital of the future Territorial government. Oklahoma City has a population of 2000 or 3000, and is now the military headquarters of the Territory. President Richardson of the Oklahoma Bank paid $500 for a lot there.

The Chicago colony has located itself at Harrison, a new town near the old station of Edmund, and has issued a large plat of its giving 96 blocks and an entire section of ground to spread itself over, and making itself a junction of the Atchison and 'Frisco lines of railroad, after 'Frisco is extended west from its present terminus at Sapula.

The ride tonight from Guthrie to Purcell reveals strange and beautiful pictures. All over the level lands approaching the Canadian River bottom the lights of camp fires burning in the open air or the lights of lamps glimmering through canvas tents give the entire country a weird but pleasing look. There was no timber line to obstruct the view for miles of distance. It was a fine spectacular scene.

The presence of the paleface has given greater significance to the meaning of the Indian word "Oklahoma," as designating the beautiful land, and now then the lights marked the site of some ambitious town of yesterday's birth. At all of them there was but one answer to the question on everybody's lips. It was one of peace. Oklahoma had been settled without bloodshed.

SCENES AT GUTHRIE.

Fatal Quarrel Over a Claim—A Water Famine.

KANSAS CITY, April 23.—[By the Associated Press.] The Star's Guthrie special says: The first homestead filed at Guthrie was by Mark S. Conn of Ft. Smith, Ark. The first soldier to file a declaratory statement was Benton Turner, a private in Company I, Sixth Illinois Cavalry. During yesterday three townsites, Guthrie, Oklahoma City and Edmunds, three homesteads and 21 soldiers' declaratory statements were filed. At 12:12 William Johnson, heading a little procession at the land office, laid down a rough chart of Guthrie and filed it as a townsite. This was the first paper presented. Four clerks for the land offices from Washington arrived yesterday, two for Kingfisher and two for here. The Kingfisher land office will not be open until Thursday.

At 5 o'clock yesterday evening a pistol report across Cottonwood Creek, west of the depot, outside of the townsite reserve, attracted attention. In a moment a man on horseback went over the hill at break-neck speed. The deputies went over, but were told that nothing had occurred. A Star reporter got a boat and crossed the stream, however, to investigate. In the bushes were collected half a dozen men. On the ground and beside a half-made grave was stretched all that was left of S. T. Compis. A ball from a revolver had passed entirely through his heart. The shooting was done by a man who claimed to have first staked out the claim. This claim Compis and partner had settled on. The murderer jumped on a horse and escaped. Believing secrecy was the easiest way out, Compis's partner dragged the dying man into the bushes and said no one had been hurt. He would not give his name, and the peculiarity of the situation prevented a searching inquiry. The dead man is about 30 years old, and had black hair and eyes. Compis's companion took possession of the murderer's outfit of wagon and two horses. The body was buried in the bushes. This was the only murder near Guthrie up to midnight despite other reports.

All night there was much suffering for water. The railroad company refused to let the settlers take water from the railroad tank for fear of exhaustion. The water in the Cottonwood is red with mud. A water famine seems imminent. Hawkers went about the depot last night with buckets of water, charging 5 cents a glass. The engineer were besieged by thirsty people for a drink from the engine tanks, and many were accommodated. Up to midnight not a quarrel on Guthrie townsite had occurred.

Wild estimates of the number of people at Guthrie were telegraphed last night. A liberal estimate is 6000. There were some queer scenes yesterday. A number of men would get together and agree that a street should run in a certain direction. Lots would be staked to face it. The men adjoining would declare those fellows' stakes directly in the street, and that their lots faced streets. Thus no man knows for a certainty that he has a lot. Nevertheless, many sites were sold, one man paying $100 for a supposed business site. In the state of uncertainty, every one is good-natured and hanging onto his claim.

A great prairie fire raged east of the city last night, and with the camp fires made a beautiful sight. A squad of Gen. Merritt's soldiers guarded the land office all night.

There is great indignation at the fact that large numbers, including many prominent people, got in before noon yesterday and made selections. Also there is much indignation over a hundred or more deputy marshals who used their authority as a cloak to get on the ground and resigned at noon. They all have a lot. They are to be singled out and complaint lodged against them. A resolution was adopted that every invader be complained of and efforts at once made to drive them out. Feeling is very strong in this matter.

AT CALDWELL'S CAMP.

Stirring Scenes—Fatal Fight During Sunday Services.

WICHITA (Kan.), April 23.—[By the Associated Press.] A special to the Daily Eagle from Pond Creek, I. T., says: At 2 o'clock two men, Ragan and Cochrane, arrived in Pond Creek, bringing the first news from the camp under Capt. Woodson at the Caldwell trail. At 1 o'clock yesterday morning 3000 wagons and several hundred horsemen were drawn up in line two miles this side of the Oklahoma line. At that hour Capt. Woodson gave the command to advance and at 11:30 all had arrived at the Oklahoma line ready for the great free-for-all race over the prairies. Capt. Woodson addressed the boomers and in the name of the United States Government thanked them for their behavior.

At precisely 12 o'clock and 3 minutes the bugle sounded, and the boomers commenced their march across the prairies. A few yards from the starting point a boomer's horse stumbled and fell upon him, breaking the man's neck. Another in a buggy, wishing to inspire new energy into his fagged-out horse, fired a shotgun and accidentally killed a neighboring boomer.

N. P. Reese, a photographer, who also returned this morning from the Caldwell camp, says that on Sunday the boomers held church services, and during the sermon two men got into an altercation regarding a horsewhip and one of them was fatally stabbed.

The first stage coach from Kingfisher, which was expected in Pond Creek at 10 p.m. with the first tidings from the Kingfisher district, had not arrived at 7 o'clock.

REASSURING REPORTS.

A Good Class of People Running Things in Oklahoma.

"Everything is quiet here. A good class of people is in charge of affairs. The Guthrie land office is in full operation. Kingfisher will open about Thursday. The people will settle the townsite question quietly and await legislation to perfect their titles. There is absolutely no ground for uneasiness. A public meeting here tonight was as orderly and conservative in character as it would be in New York."

One of the Dannemark's Passengers Says the Ship Was Unseaworthy—Praise for Capt. Murrill.

By Telegraph to The Times.

LITTLE ROCK (Ark.), April 23.—[By the Associated Press.] The stealing of the Plummerville (Conway county) ballot-box last November is about to be cleared up. Warren Taylor, a young man of Morrilton, has been arrested on a charge of interfering with election affairs at Plummerville. Taylor got scared and has turned State's evidence, having told before the Federal Grand Jury that he was a member of a party of 21 men who went down from Morrilton on the memorable night because trouble was expected at Plummerville; that just outside of the latter place the crowd halted and five men rode on in to town and returned a little while afterward, saying that all was quiet. The crowd started back, and when near home discovered that the five men had the Plummerville ballot-box.

NOT SEAWORTHY.

An Immigrant's Story About the Ill-fated Dannemark.

NEW YORK, April 23.—[By the Associated Press.] Olaf Wuglund, one of the few English-speaking people in the party of the Dannemark's passengers, which arrived here today from Philadelphia, said that before the accident occurred one of the Norwegian immigrants told him that he had overheard a conversation in the officers' quarters. One of the ship's officers said to the others in the apartment that he thought the vessel would never reach New York. Her machinery was in bad order and had not received the care it should have before the steamer sailed. Her pumps were broken and in case of accident would be found of little service.

"I'm afraid the Dannemark," the officer is reported to have said; "will meet the fate of the Geyser."

The Geyser was the vessel of the same line sunk off Nova Scotia in collision with the Thingvalla, about a year ago.

Wuglund further said that the vessel's coal boxes were afire on two occasions before the machinery gave out. The first fire occurred at 1 o'clock on the night of the 29th of March; the second at 3:30 the following day. The passengers heard of both fires, and showed more uneasiness over the comparatively slight accidents than when the vessel became totally disabled. Wuglung was loud in his praise of the captain and crew of the steamer Missouri, which received the Dannemark's passengers.

LONDON, April 23.—Capt. Knudsen of the wrecked Dannemark, and three engineers, arrived on board the steamer York City. They are enthusiastic in their praises of Capt. Murrill and the officers of the steamer Missouri.

AN EARL'S TRAVELS.

Lord Lonsdale Relates His Experiences in the Arctic.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—[By the Associated Press.] Lord Lonsdale arrived here today on the steamer Bertha from Kodiak Alaska. He gives the following account of his travels:

On the 20th of February, 1888, he left London, equipped for a journey through the country adjacent to the Arctic circle. He proceeded directly to Winnipeg, Manitoba, where nearly all his outfit was left, and started north with sleds drawn by dogs, his only white companion being William McKewn, and a cook in the employ of the Hudson Bay Company. In August, 1888, he reached Melville Island, the farthest point north reached by him. Thence he started across Alaska for Kodiak, his course being from Melville Island to the nearest point on the Yukon River. After reaching this he followed it nearly all the way. He had with him 69 dogs and 18 Indians, but during the journey all but eight of the dogs died and several Indians were nearly frozen to death.

Lonsdale was obliged to walk over 1500 miles of the journey across Alaska, owing to the depth of snow which made it impossible for the dogs to drag little more than sleds with provisions on them.

On November 10, 1888, he reached a Russian mission of the Yukon River; from there he went across to Neshagak River, thence to Bristo Bay, arriving at Katma January 12, 1889. Owing to the thickness of the ice, a boat did not arrive from Kodiak until March 14th. He left Kodiak about a month ago, for this port.

Lord Lonsdale says his object was not to find the north pole, as has been published, but to explore the islands in the Arctic Ocean and study the lands and animals found there. He will stay a few weeks in this city and then go to New York by way of Winnipeg. He brought with him a number of rich specimens which he secured on his journey.

YELLOW FEVER.

More About Its Terrible Ravages in Brazil.

BALTIMORE, April 23.—[By the Associated Press.] Health Commissioner Stuart of this city today received dispatches from Surg.-Gen. Hamilton of the Marine Hospital Service of the United States Navy, notifying him that at Santos and Rio, two ports from which coffee importers of this city receive almost all their coffee, yellow fever is raging with greater violence than ever before. The Directors of Rio have become so much alarmed at the prospective loss to the commerce of the country that they now call the disease "Acesso Pernissoso," hoping that a new name will allay the fears of proposed tourists. At the time of the last report from Rio there had been 186 deaths from yellow fever in four days.

Shocking Death of a Lady in San Francisco—One of Cleveland's Arizona Officials in Trouble.

By Telegraph to The Times.

SAN DIEGO, April 23.—[By the Associated Press.] About 3 o'clock this morning a pitched battle with cobble stones and shovels occurred between employés of the San Diego Terminal Company and the California Southern. The former company have a franchise on one of the streets, and a guard was kept over it for the purpose, it is claimed, of preventing the California Southern from laying a track across the street and reaching the water front.

This morning a gang of California Southern men began laying a switch, when a force of the Terminal Company's men appeared and drove them off, and the situation is held by armed guards of the Terminal Company.

The entire party were arrested on charges of trespass.

TRIED THE DENVER DODGE.

Desperate Attempt to Rob a Bank at Ventura.

VENUTRA, April 23.—[By the Associated Press.] Today at noon a bold attempt at bank robbery was made by a man named McCarthy, who was recently discharged from the County Hospital. He entered Collins & Son's bank, while Cashier Collins was gone to lunch, leaving Jack Morrison alone. McCarthy entered and complained of his poverty and desperation, which had driven him to think of suicide. He laid a package on the counter, which he said was dynamite, and then drew a six-shooter and demanded $30,000.

Morrison did not wait for the explosion nor hand over the money, but dodged behind a high counter and ran out of the back door. The robber then seized a tray containing about $4000 and walked into the street.

Morrison had given the alarm and the people had gathered on the street, but no one was armed. The thief had a horse hitched about 200 feet from the bank and was making for that. Sheriff Reilly was also near, but he was also without arms. He stepped into a hardware store, seized a shotgun and demanded his surrender, whereupon the thief surrendered and was marched to jail.

KILLED BY A CAR.

A Lady's Shocking Death at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—[By the Associated Press.] Mrs. Bridget Needham boarded a Valencia-street cable car today near the corner of Fifth and Market streets, taking a seat on the dummy. For some reason she changed her mind about riding, and without waiting for the car to more than slow up she alighted just opposite the corner of Powell street. A Folsom-street car was going along at a good pace almost even with the cable car, and as Mrs. Needham reached the pavement she stepped a little too far toward the other track. In an instant and before the driver could well see what was the matter or give his brake more than a futile twist, the unfortunate woman was knocked down and fell beneath the horse-car. Her head lay across the rail and her body outside, thus leaving her neck directly before the wheel. In a second after she had been struck by the team, the wheel had passed over the poor woman's neck and jaw, inflicting ghastly injuries and causing almost instant death. The whole time occupied from the moment of leaving the dummy until the woman was dead was not more than five or six seconds.

NO BOYCOTT.

The Proposed Crusade Against the Atchison Abandoned.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—[By the Associated Press.] The committee appointed by the Canned Goods Association to advise with reference to the proposed boycott of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé by merchants of this city held an informal meeting today. With other merchants they freely discussed the matter in its various bearings. It was shown that there is a conservative element that is not in favor of the boycott, and it is now deemed very unlikely that the proposed action will be taken.

Used Franked Envelopes.

PRESCOTT (Ariz.), April 23.—Col. S. B. Bevans, appointed by the Cleveland Administration as special agent of the Interior Department, received instructions yesterday to turn over all his papers to officers of the land office. This afternoon, while preparing to leave for New Jersey, he was arrested on complaint of Dr. Lincoln and charged with using franked envelopes of the Interior Department for private correspondence. He gave bonds in the sum of $400 to appear at the June term of the court.

Ex-Policeman Thompson's Trial.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—In the trial of ex-Policeman Thompson for killing Charles Rosenbrock, the prosecution closed its case today, and testimony for the defense was taken. But one witness was examined, counsel stating that when two witnesses who were absent, and for whom attachments were issued, should have testified, he would close his side also. The court then adjourned.

A Transfer in Trust.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23. — Judge Coffey has entered an order permitting the heirs of the late Peter Donahue to transfer the title of the steamers James M. Donahue and Tiburon to James M. Donahue, in trust for the San Francisco and North Pacific Railway Company, it being the desire of the company that the ownership of the steamers should remain in the president of the company.

Peculiar Case of Insanity.

SANTA BARBARA, April 23.—Eleiro Polette, an Italian who is affected with a strange mental ailment, was taken tonight on board a steamer en route to San Francisco, where he will be placed in a private asylum. His trouble began with a sleep of 34 days, during which time he did not awaken or take food. Since that time he has been demented, and at times violent.

The Sonoma Fruit Crop.

SANTA ROSA, April 23.—Advices from most points in Sonoma county show that the peach crop will be about a third under the usual yield. The apricot crop will be short. Pears will be abundant. Cherries and all other fruits will be plentiful.

TOM LILLIS

Charged with Irregularities with the Firm's Money.

Tom Lillis, a well-known traveling man in Southern California, and who has been with the wholesale grocery-house of M. A. Newmark & Co. of this city for six months past, is in trouble. He has been traveling for the firm in San Bernardino and San Diego counties, his duties being those of a salesman and not collector of the accounts. Still, when customers offered to pay their accounts he would receive the money and forward it to Los Angeles. For several weeks past the company has been suspicious of the integrity of its salesman, and he was finally discharged about two weeks ago. It heard reports about him, charging him with living high and gambling. After his discharge his accounts were investigated, and the firm has come to the conclusion that Lillis has not turned in all the money he received from customers. There was one account of $68.50 on a San Bernardino merchant, which they claim was paid to Lillis, and which he never reported. Shortly after he was let out Lillis went to San Francisco, where he now is. Yesterday a complaint was filed in Justice Lockwood's court, charging Lillis with embezzlement, and he will be brought back to Los Angeles for examination.

Lillis is a young man who has hitherto borne a good reputation, and is an excellent salesman. He has many friends who are sorry to see such a grave charge brought against him. His friends claim that he did not gamble much himself, but staked others, and principally in San Bernardino. In the meantime a further investigation is being made into his accounts to see whether or not there are any more irregularities than the one mentioned.

A PAPAL BRIEF

CONCERNING THE NEW WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY.

The Archbishop of Baltimore Given Power to Govern the Policy of the Embryo Seat of Catholic Learning.

By Telegraph to The Times.

BALTIMORE, April 23.—[By the Associated Press.] The Catholic Mirror will tomorrow publish the following brief address to the American bishops by Pope Leo, setting forth the wishes of the Holy See in relation to the Catholic College at Washington:

"The earnestness with which you apply yourselves to the preservation of Catholic piety, to promote the interest of your dioceses and especially to supply the safeguards by which provision is made for the proper training of clergymen and young laymen in sound doctrines and in every branch of science, sacred and profane, give us cause of great joy, therefore very welcome were your letters sent to us toward the close of the last year, in which you state that work on the great lyceum or university at Washington had so far progressed that all things are now ready for teaching theology in that city.

"We joyously accept your university laws and statutes which you submitted to our authority and judgment. We judge your purpose most praiseworthy that you have resolved to set up in the centennial year of the establishment of the ecclesiastical hierachy there a monument and perpetual memorial of that auspicious event by founding a university. Therefore, anxious to satisfy forthwith your just-addressed desires, we entrusted your university laws, brought for examination and recognition, to those of our most eminent cardinals of the propaganda, that they might give us their judgment concerning them. Now their opinions having been laid before us, gladly granting your request, we sanction by these letters the statutes and laws of your university to promote students whose knowledge shall have been tested in the academic degree of doctorship in theology, philosophy and common law, and in other sciences in which it is customary to confer degrees and doctorships.

"But we wish you, dearly beloved brethren, to preside with jealous care over the direction of the studies and discipline of the students in your university, either through yourselves or through prelates chosen from you whom you shall have judged proficient for this office. As the see of Baltimore is chief among the episcopal sees of the United States of North America, to the Archbishop of Baltimore and his successors we grant the privilege of discharging the office of supreme censor.

"Moreover, we desire, first of all, in the field of philosophy and theology, that the studies or programme of the subjects to be followed in your university be submitted to this apostolic authority, in order that they may be approved, and that the teaching in every branch of knowledge be so arranged that your clerics and laymen equally may have an opportunity to satisfy the noble desire of knowledge by adequate instruction among these courses. We wish that there be established a school of pontifical and ecclesiastical law, which knowledge, especially in these times, we know to be of great importance. We expect you all, furthermore, to affiliate to your university, seminaries and colleges and other institutions of learning, as is suggested in the statutes, safe guarding, however, the independence of each one, in order to derive from the various departments of a great university the greatest benefit for the greatest number. It is well to admit, particularly to those schools of theology and philosophy, not only those who should have finished those studies pointed out by the third penary council of Baltimore, but also even those who are on the beginning of the prosecution of these courses of studies.

"Since a great university not only redounds to the honor of your country, but assures the rich and salutary fruits belonging to the propagation of sound doctrine and the protection of Catholic piety, rightly do we trust that the noble-minded American faithful will not permit anything to be wanting to you in order to bring the work to a splendid completion. Washington University being established by those our letters, we forbid the founding of any other such institution without consulting the apostolic see. What we have declared and appointed by these letters we judge will be clear proof of our desire and anxiety to promote in that region more and more the glory of the religious prosperity of the Catholic religion.

"Given in Rome at St. Peters on the feast of St. Thomas Aquinas 1889 in the twelfth year of our pontificate.

"LEO XII PP."

DRUGGIST SEXTON.

He Exonerates Himself from the Charge of Dishonesty.

Charles L. Sexton, the young Temple-street druggist, whose unexplained and sudden wind-up of business last Saturday night caused something of a sensation in his neighborhood, called at the TIMES office yesterday, accompanied by his father, C. W. Sexton, and J. W. Potts, and made an explanation which will undoubtedly set him straight with the public. The young man stated that his business had been running down for several months, and he saw no way of continuing and paying his rental of $40 a month. He found a chance to exchange his stock of goods for a couple of town lots, and proceeded quietly to make the trade. But he and the gentleman with whom he exchanged were afraid that if the creditors got wind of the transaction they would pounce down with attachments, and the stock would be disposed of at forced sale and slaughtered. It was this fear that induced Sexton to pack up his goods and have them hauled away after nightfall. Both the young man and his father admit that the course adopted was injudicious, and laid him open to severe criticism. Yesterday father and son visited the creditors and made arrangements to settle the outstanding indebtedness, amounting to $184.25, today. To this end a loan is being secured on the lots that were taken in exchange for the stock of goods. Several of the creditors have agreed to knock off a percentage from their bills in consideration of the circumstances.

As regards the young man's personal habits, Mr. Potts says he can vouch for him that he does not drink to excess or keep company with dissolute women, and he cites other neighbors who will substantiate the statement.

The whole story seems to have hinged upon the mysterious closing of the store between two days.

BURLINGHAM (N.Y.), May 31, 1886.

G. G. Green—DEAR SIR: I am frequently troubled with severe colds, and the only remedy that will relieve me of them is your Boschee's German Syrup. I have used it for more than twelve years. It is a constant household companion with me. Our merchant here procured it first at my solicitation, and says he has sold a great many bottles. It is a very popular remedy in this section. Every person who has used it speaks in the highest terms of its merits. I do not know of a single case it has not cured. I first used it in Vermont, where I lived before coming here. I advise every one to use it, as it is certainly the best cough medicine I have ever known. I have tried nearly all of them at different times.

Yours respectfully, MOSES GRAY,
Proprietor Grist Mill.

PASADENA NEWS.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE BOARD OF TRADE.

New Board of Directors—The Cannery Again—$10,000 Given Away by the City Council—Local Briefs, Personals, Etc.

PASADENA, April 23.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] The Board of Trade met in regular session this afternoon, it being the occasion of its annual meeting. There was quite a large attendance, so large in fact that adjournment was taken to the Webster Hall, to accommodate the unusual numbers.

The report of the Finance Committee was read and adopted.

The report of Secretary Fordham showed bills-payable to the amount of $80.40, and $100 in the treasury.

The committee having charge of the arrangement for Arbor day, reported that a consignment of pepper and eucalyptus sprouts, numbering 2000 plants, had been shipped to the board by the State Board of Forestry, and were expected the latter part of the week.

C. C. Brown addressed the gentlemen present concerning the good work accomplished by the board, and urged more regular attendance of the members.

J. A. Buchanan, chairman of the Banquet Committee, stated that arrangements had been completed to hold a banquet at the Painter Hotel on the evening of the 30th inst., and added that gentlemen who intended being present would confer a favor by securing their tickets at C. T. Foster's, at $1 each, before Thursday evening.

W. U. Masters, president of the Board of Trade, then read his address to the gentlemen present on the work accomplished by the board during the fiscal year just ended. It embraces all the prominent undertakings of the board, many of which had been remarkably successful and had added not a little to the general prosperity of the city of Pasadena.

C. C. Brown, a member of the Boulevard Committee, reported that thus far everything had worked smoothly and that the Supervisors had promised to visit Pasadena and also to lend the project the desired aid. Mr. Brown suggested that the proper thing to do would be for a committee of the board to go before the County Commissioners and demand that they give us recognition, and that they expend the money paid into the county treasury by the taxpayers of Pasadena for the benefit of this city for road purposes.

J. A. Buchanan moved that the report of the president be received, placed on file and published by the press of the city.

Next in the order of business was the election of the new board of directors. A ballot being taken, the following gentlemen were declared elected, and constitute the board of directors for the ensuing year: J. A. Buchanan, W. U. Masters, R. Williams, E. Knight, B. A. O'Neill, C. E. Tebbetts, M. E. Wood.

J. A. Buchanan then informally remarked that it was the duty of members, not directors, to be present at the meetings as it was for the directors and officers, and made a strong plea that both merchants and business men make an effort to attend the meeting.

The new Board of Directors will meet for organization and the election of new officers tomorrow morning at 8:30 o'clock in the office of B. A. O'Neill.

Adjourned.

THE CANNERY.

Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock there will be an important meeting in the Board of Trade rooms to discuss once more the cannery project, and every citizen of Pasadena who has the general interest and his own interest at heart will attend. It was stated by C. E. Tebbetts this afternoon in the Board of Trade rooms that he was in receipt of a letter from parties in the East asking what the "Pasadena Cannery" would contract to furnish 100,000 pounds of fruit for. Surely this is an incentive. Our fruit will go all over the country, and the cannery would become a splendid investment.

The Union this evening contains an article headed

ON THE "Q. T."

The article in question is given in full below and requires no explanation, except that which the citizens of Pasadena seem to want from the president of the Council:

By reference to the file of the Union, of Saturday, September 15th, the following note is found in the proceedings of the City Council:

"A recess of one-half hour was then taken, after which the Council went into secret session for the purpose of further consideration of the sewer business."

This shows that a secret session was held for the transaction of this important business.

On Monday following the Union contained the following paragraph on the editorial page:

"The City Council has closed a contract with the Pacific Sewerage Company, of which Gen. Snyder is president, for the disposition, reception and care of the city's sewage. The system is what is known as the West, and is the same as that in use at Atlantic City, N. J., and other places in the East. The contract has been drawn up and signed, and active construction will commence in a few days."

The above paragraph indicates clearly that the contract whereby the Pacific Sewerage Company came into possession of $10,000 of city bonds was consummated on the quiet.

Will M. M. Parker, president of the Board of Trustees, publish a letter in the press of this city explaining the action of the Council in giving the Pacific Sewage Company $10,000 in bonds on the 15th day of September last.

At that particular time the city was so much engrossed in discussing the high-license proposition that a small matter like that referred to was overlooked entirely by the people, and now they would like to know something about it.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

ANTONIA LAUGHLIN

UNDER EXAMINATION FOR ATTEMPTED MURDER.

What the Jealousy of a Bad Woman Brought About—She Was Called a "One-eyed Liar," and Then She Fired Her Pistol.

The examination of Antonia Laughlin, charged with attempting to shoot Francisca Avila, was conducted with closed doors in Justice Lockwood's court yesterday. The Court did not object to the admission of outsiders, but the attorney for the defense, Mr. Payton, insisted upon the rule being enforced. The developments, so far as the examination went yesterday, were not particularly sensational or salacious.

It will be remembered that the shooting occurred on the night of March 22d, about 8 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. Avila, on Castelar street. The testimony introduced yesterday was to the effect that at the hour mentioned Antonia Laughlin came to Mrs. Avila's house with her lover, Sanlos Bouchet. They inquired for Mrs. Avila, who was out, but she was sent for by her sister, and soon came.

Thereupon Antonia told Bouchet to ask the questions he had come to ask. He asked Mrs. Avila whether he had ever called at her house and given her oranges. She replied that he had not. Antonia Laughlin testified that she then told Mrs. Avila that she (Laughlin) had left her husband to live with Bouchet, and did not propose to have him taking up with such ——— as Mrs. Avila. The latter denied that she had had anything to do with Bouchet, when Antonia scornfully reasserted that she lied. Mrs. Avila became excited herself, and called Antonia a "one-eyed liar," referring to a peculiarity in the vision of that woman.

At this point the conflict in the testimony begins. Mrs. Avila claims that Antonia produced a revolver and shot at her. On the other hand, the witnesses for Antonia claim, and she alleges, that she did not shoot until after Mrs. Avila reached down to pick up a stone with which to begin an attack. There was a reproduction on the witness stand of some vigorous language used at this time, which can be imagined more properly that published. The belligerent attitude of Antonia Laughlin was put an end to by Bouchet, who grabbed her wrist just as she fired, and the ball went wild, without doing any execution. The row was stopped, and the various parties thereto separated.

The defense had put Mrs. Antonia on the stand and barely begun her examination when court adjourned until this morning.

BROUGHT TO BOOK.

H. H. Boyce Sued for $20,000—A Foreclosure.

Late yesterday afternoon a complaint was filed in the County Clerk's office, the initial step in a suit by J. M. Studebaker and J. I. Case against H. H. Boyce, the Abstract of Title and Insurance Company, John E. Murray, Albert Frazier and G. W. Frazier. The suit is to secure a foreclosure of a mortgage upon the Crescent addition to Monrovia. The complaint sets forth that in January, 1888, the plaintiff's were owners of the land which was afterwards named the Crescent addition to Monrovia, that upon January 24, 1888, they entered into an agreement with Boyce, whereby they agreed to sell him the land, and he executed and delivered to them four promissory notes, the first of which has been paid and the remaining three for $3000, $9000 and $9000 are unpaid; except $1000 of the amount, which was paid March 20, 1888, on the first of the three notes remaining unpaid, and $1000 on the second of the three remaining notes. The complaint further alleges that the Abstract Title and Insurance Company composed of the defendants Murray, Wooley, Albert Frazier and G. W. Frazier own or claim some interest in the premises.

The plaintiffs therefore ask for judgment for $10,000 now due; also for $9000 which will become due on January 24, 1890, and that so much of the property may be sold as may be necessary to pay the amount now due, and also that which will become due in 1890. Also that the defendants and all other persons claiming under their or either of them, as purchasers, subsequent incumbrances or otherwise, of said premises be barred and foreclosed of all right to the land.

Discharged on Habeas Corpus.

Robert Miller of Soledad township was made happy by Judge Shaw late yesterday afternoon. Miller has been lying in the County Jail for the last 30 days, charged with assault to murder. Attorney Hugh Crawford had him brought before the court at 4 o'clock on a writ of habeas corpus. It appearing to the court from the evidence introduced that Miller had been in jail over the statutory time, without any information being filed or indictment returned against him, he was discharged from custody.

Anniversary Banquet.

A banquet in honor of the first anniversary of the founding of the Vienna Bakery took place last night. The banquet was given by R. Cohn, the proprietor, and there were about 100 guests present. Solomon Mendelson was elected toastmaster, and he presided to the queen's taste, speeches being made by many well-known citizens. The banquet was a success in every sense of the word, and the guests departed at a late hour well pleased with themselves, the feast and the cozy bakery.

All diseases of the respiratory organs treated by the most improved medical inhalations and the Compound Oxygen treatment, which has such a world-wide reputation in lung and nervous affections.

We take pleasure in announcing to the public that we combine the Compound Oxygen Treatment with our system of practice in the cure of asthma, bronchitis, consumption, dyspepsia, insomnia, sore throat, catarrh, rheumatism and nervous prostration.

The testimonials given below are very fair samples as to the time required for effecting cures in these troublesome cases:

LOS ANGELES, CAL., Nov 14, 1888.

This is to certify that I had been afflicted with asthma and emphysima of the lungs for about 24 years. My disease was contracted in the army. I had tried almost every known remedy, both here and in the East, but nothing ever gave me permanent relief until I tried Dr Williams's Compound Oxygen and other remedies. It is only about one month since I began the treatment, and already I feel like another man. I was so bad that for days I could hardly breathe, but I do positively feel that I am cured. The difficulty of breathing has been entirely removed, and I feel as well as I ever did in every respect.

JOHN W. HOYT,
Employe City Water Works,
265 Bellevue Avenue, Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 15, 1888.

It is a source of gratification to me to be able to testify to the very satisfactory cure Dr. M. Hilton Williams has effected in my case with his Compound Oxygen and other inhalations. After suffering several years with catarrh of the head and throat also bronchitis, which caused a very aggravating cough, I applied to Dr. Williams, who effected an entire cure in just two months from the time I began the treatment. I take pleasure in recommending Dr Williams as a Christian gentleman and a conscientious and skillful physician, whose cures seem almost marvelous in cases of consumption, asthma, bronchitis and catarrh.

MRS. L. A. THURSTON,
1423 Temple st., Los Angeles, Cal.

I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations aid in dissolving the mucous and in contracting and healing the cavities which nothing else can do with the same success. The very best references from those already cured.

CONSULTATION FREE.

The Fruit Union to Have a Formidable Rival.

Entries and Weights for Today's Races at Bay District—A Russian Corvette at San Francisco.

By Telegraph to The Times.

SAN DIEGO, April 24.—[By the Associated Press.] In the case of A. N. Polymath, the Swiss jeweler who was arrested several months ago for unlawfully imprisoning Mr. and Mrs. Tabor in his shop and compelling the lady to submit to a search for rings he claimed they had stolen, the jury found him guilty and he was fined $500. It is considered by some an attempt to blackmail and it is said that Polymath is accused of the same offense in San José and other places.

Polymath paid his fine, but was immediately re-arrested on a charge of defaming the characters of the Tabors, and three suits, aggregating $45,000 damages, have been commenced against him.

THE FRUIT UNION.

An Association Formed to be Its Rival.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—[By the Associated Press.] The Pacific Fruit Association, which comprises a number of California fruit-growers and Chicago firms, that last season acted as agents for the California Fruit Union has been organized as a rival to the union. A well-known fruit shipper said today that Chicago commission merchants are willing to receive direct compensation of from 2½ to 5 per cent., provided the fruit be sold at auction. To ship through the union entails an expense of 10 per cent. to the shippers.

It is claimed that in the new combination immediate returns will be received from all sales made and arrangements will be made to ship by special cars, as in the case of the Fruit Union. Preparations have already been made by the association for the sale of 500 carloads of California fruit, and an extensive traffic is looked for.

PASADENA EXCITED.

Citizens Indignant Over Recent Doings of the Trustees.

PASADENA, April 24.—[By the Associated Press.] The action of the Trustees in purchasing the fire engine-house, jail and other public buildings, despite the protest of the majority of citizens, who believe the purchase price exorbitant, has caused considerable discussion. Injunction suits will be filed in the morning by citizens to prevent consummation of the bargains. It is understood that a libel suit for $50,000 will be brought against the Star, which opposed the deal.

A Russian Corvette at 'Frisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—The Russian corvette Kraysser arrived in port this morning, 43 days from Valparaiso. She is commanded by Capt. Bisolviosoff. Her complement consists of 16 officers and 173 men. The corvette was built in 1875 and is about 1500 tonnage. She was here in 1878, when she remained for six months. The Krayser will remain in the harbor until the early part of May, when she will be joined by the another Russian frigate. The two vessels will then escort Bishop Vladimir on a tour of the Alaska missions.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

San Gabriel.

SAN GABRIEL, April 22.—To the Editor of THE TIMES.] Holy Week was celebrated at the Mission Church here with the usual ceremonies and solemnities. All of the services were well attended, the crowds on Thursday, Friday and Sunday being particularly large, including a great many non-Catholics, some of whom, at least, are actuated more by curiosity than devotion, going much in the same way as they would to a circus or a theatrical performance. Scarce a day passes that the old mission is not visited by numbers of tourists, and the church has to be kept locked between services or the place would be in a short time dismantled by relic hunters who seem to leave at their eastern homes all ideas of honesty and propriety. Even the sacred vessels of the tabernacle would not be safe from their hands were they not under lock and key, as happened sometime ago at the Mission of San Antonio where a golden chalice was stolen by some vandal who obtained permission to remain alone in the church under the plea of photographing the interior.

On each recurring Holy Saturday—the Saturday before Easter Sunday—the Spanish-speaking population hang and burn the arch-traitor Judas Iscariot in effigy. This is an old custom of the Mission Indians, who thereby express their contempt and hatred for him who sold his Master for 30 pieces of silver. It is usual to take up a collection to pay the expenses of the hanging, etc. With amazing impartiality and cheek, the boys who had charge of the affair this year solicited a subscription from our Jewish merchant "to help hang his countryman!"

O. H. Burke is the happy father of another bouncing boy. Orrin says that when he has one more boy he will have two teams, and be contented, but not sooner. Mother and child are doing well.

The orange trees are blooming, though many of them are still loaded with fruit.

L. J. Rose received last week two carloads of six-inch iron water pipe, which he is laying between Sunny Slope and his new stable.

Strong & Co. have finished packing their oranges here. They are still at work in the Duarte country, where quantities of very fine oranges are grown, among the best in the country.

The San Gabriel base-ball club has been doing some good work lately. They have played several match games this season and, so far, have suffered but one defeat. On Sunday afternoon they played a game with a select nine from Old Mission and, as usual, won. They are thinking of, in the near future, issuing a challenge to one of your Los Angeles nines.

Father Caballeria of the cathedral spent several days here recently assisting Father Scannel with the Easter confessions. The reverend gentleman worked hard during his stay, spending most of his time in the confessional and the pulpit. He has become a general favorite, but especially with those who understand Spanish, whom he has charmed with his eloquent sermons in his native Castilian.

The Deputy Assessor has been interviewing our citizens during the week. He has been insisting on collecting the poll-tax on the spot "from all who return personal property," and not, as has been customary, only from those who return no real estate.

Haying will soon commence here. The warm weather of the past week has been seasonable and advantageous to all growing crops. S. G.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

Cheap Power.

LOS ANGELES, April 14.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] I have a simple and cheap device to raise water 28 feet high. With it I can raise 100 tons of water (25,000 gallons) 28 feet high at a cost for fuel of 10 cents. This is applicable and practical for irrigating where a river or creek passes through a level country, say 10 to 15 feet below the level of the land. I saw a good place to test its value on the banks of a river, some two miles this side of Whittier. There was a large flat country, and no water, yet plenty of water in the river, and only 16 feet below the surface of the land. If 1000 tons of water can be raised in a day, or less, at a cost of $1 for fuel, would it not be a good enterprise to go at? I am not looking for business in this land of flowers and sunshine, but this device of mine is so simple and cheap to operate, it may be that a company could be formed to fetch it out. I use no pump nor machinery. I use a cylinder made like a boiler without tubes, and one of our Hazelton tripod boilers, the same that we are now erecting at three cable plants in this city. With this boiler I make steam so dry and hot that I can displace the air from the cylinder by forcing steam into the same to take the place of the air; then I shut off the steam and let it condense. This forms the vacuum in the cylinder, and it fills with water through a tube with one end in the water. The other end is connected to the cylinder. A cylinder 6 feet in diameter and 50 feet long will hold nearly 50 tons of water. This can be filled and emptied in 15 minutes.

One of your citizens asked me to give this explanation to your paper, as he stated it would be of great value in this country. It is not necessary to be on the banks of a river, if drive-wells can reach water within 20 feet of the surface, as 20 to 40, or more, wells can be driven, with a header to connect them. The vacuum to this cylinder will pull water from all the wells at the same time.

George H. Hoadley, one of our agents for this coast, is now erecting our boilers at the three cable plants abovenamed, and informs me that the Seventh-street station will be ready to fire up inside of four weeks. Allow me to state here that the cable plants abovenamed are going to be far better constructed than our roads in Chicago, yet my boilers furnish the steam for all of Mr. C. B. Holmes's lines in Chicago at a very low cost for fuel, as coal there costs $1.40 per ton. But your machinery is later and better than ours.

TIE AND TRACK.

LOS ANGELES AS A GREAT FOCAL POINT.

A Kink in the Sale of First-class Unlimited Tickets from the East to Southern California Points—An Out and Out Fraud.

The general opinion among railroad men seems to be that Los Angeles is soon to become the greatest railroad center west of Kansas City. Everything points that way, and if the Utah, Salt Lake and Los Angeles road is built on time, it is a foregone conclusion that a number of branch lines will be built to the back country very soon. This will be the signal for the opening of numerous big factories in Los Angeles, and the population will double in a very short time.

The Southern Pacific people have been watching this section of the country for several years, but they never had any idea of branching out until Mr. Huntington got hold of them a few months ago, and told them they must get to work down here at once. They are now arranging for a general outbreak all along the line in Southern California, and it is believed by the local officers that hundreds of men will be put to work before the summer is over.

Mr. Huntington is expected to arrive soon, when the work will begin.

There is a good deal of complaint about the manner in which excursionists are treated by some of the eastern ticket agents, who seem to have hit upon a scheme for robbing people. In speaking of this matter the San Francisco Chronicle says: The peculiar treatment of passengers on trains of the Southern Pacific running from Ogden westward to this State has given rise to much complaint of late. John Smith of New York, for instance, buys a first-class unlimited ticket from Omaha or Council Bluffs to San Diego via San Francisco. He pays full fare and expects to receive all the privileges, including stop-over, which such tickets accord. He presents his ticket to the Union Pacific conductor, who pass him along unchallenged from one division to another until he arrives at Ogden. Then the passenger's trouble begins. He is told by the Central Pacific train agent that in its present shape his ticket, although it is first-class and unlimited, is not good for passage. He asks the reason why, and is told that none of the connections of the Central Pacific have any right to sell anything but limited tickets from the Missouri River or any Eastern point to any point in California south of Bakersfield, these connections having received particular instructions from the Southern Pacific Company to that effect. This is, of course, all Greek to the passenger, who cannot possibly understand why his ticket is not all right.

When he was told that he must surrender his unlimited ticket and receive in lieu thereof a limited check not good for stopover, he is naturally indignant, but what is he to do? He is told that he can accept this ultimatum, or be subject to ejection from the train. Not desiring to get into trouble, he will, in 90 cases out of 100, surrender his unlimited ticket and the privileges which it accords for the limited train check. He naturally regards this as an imposition, but there is apparently no way out of the difficulty but to submit. He knows that if he takes the ticket he cannot make that little stop-over visit to San Francisco which he had intended to make before going on to his destination, but that makes no difference. It is the company's wishes, and not his own, to which he must defer.

One case of this kind is that of Henry Andrews of Chicago, who had his ticket taken from him near Ogden. He wanted to go to San Diego. He insisted upon his rights, but the conductor would allow him only a limited passage to Los Angeles, leaving the unlimited coupon from Los Angeles to San Diego to remain good, as a compromise.

The same rule is now in full working order with respect to New Orleans tickets sold via Ogden, and a passenger named Peter S. Peterson, who was subjected to the treatment described while on a trip with one of these tickets, is now about to begin a $25,000 damage suit for ejectment from a Central Pacific train because he would not consent to the company's proposition to give him a limited ticket.

The argument of the railroad people in support of this new rule of theirs, by which a passenger who bargains for an unlimited journey received only a limited one, is that they must have all their passengers make a continuous passage on through tickets to Southern California via Ogden. If this is not done many passengers, who desire to come to San Francisco, will buy tickets to San Diego, and on their arrival at 'Frisco will sell the remaining coupons to scalpers, who will in turn sell them to local travelers desiring to go to Southern California.

The eastern lines that have been instructed by the Southern Pacific Company not to sell unlimited tickets to points in California south of Bakersfield, refuse to obey the new rule, and continue to sell unlimited tickets.

PASADENA.

A BUDGET OF INTERESTING NEWS AND GOSSIP.

The Cannery Company Will Be Organized in Good Shape — The Stock Subscribed and Incorporation Ordered — City Affairs — Social Events Booked — Local Briefs, Personals, Etc.

PASADENA, April 24.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] Some 40 gentlemen met in Webster Hall this afternoon for the purpose of once more considering the cannery proposition. Prof. C. E. Tebbetts, who acted in the capacity of chairman at the last meeting, was again placed in the chair, and R. Williams was elected secretary.

George F. Kernaghan made a partial report for the committee on stock subscriptions. About 140 shares had been taken, and possibly the remaining members of the committee had more.

Judge H. W. Magee said he was a member of the committee, but had not been able to give the matter of soliciting stock much attention, as his other business would not permit it. He remarked that in his opinion the city now needed a cannery more than ever before, and he declared that he was willing to give up any scheme he might have entertained concerning it, and was perfectly willing to lend his aid to any cannery scheme, and would give $100 a year for five years to aid it, as he thought it would help every person in the community.

Mr. Tebbetts read a letter from an eastern house, inquiring at what price 100,000 cans of fruit would be supplied by the company, and another letter of like character was read by Mr. Wallace.

Judge Magee then moved that the company be organized with the amount of stock subscribed.

At this juncture C. Langford subscribed for four shares of stock, Joseph Hewitt one share, and G. A. Black one, making a total of 146 shares.

Judge Knight was called upon for his opinion and said if another year passed without a fruit preserving institution of some sort, the people had better pack up and leave the country. Mr. Knight stated very forcibly that for his part he could see no chance for failure, as he had lived for many years where immense quantities of fruit and vegetables were canned and he knew of but one failure and that was not owing to the industry itself.

The name was next taken up and discussed. Judge Magee was strongly in favor of "Pasadena Fruit Company," as the fame of Pasadena is world-wide and would materially aid the sale of the product of the cannery.

The question whether or not to incorporate with the stock subscribed was put to a vote and carried in favor of incorporation, unanimously.

Judge Magee said he thought the selection of a board of directors a most important thing, as directors were wanted who would give their personal attention to the business of the corporation for the year.

After a little more discussion the meeting adjourned till Thursday, the 25th inst., at 3 p. m., when the stockholders will elect a board of directors and the company will be organized.

G. G. Green—DEAR SIR: I am frequently troubled with severe colds, and the only remedy that will relieve me of them is your Hoschee's German Syrup. I have used it for more than twelve years. It is a constant household companion with me. Our merchant here procured it first at my solicitation, and says he has sold a great many bottles. It is a very popular remedy in this section. Every person who has used it speaks in the highest terms of its merits. I do not know of a single case it has not cured. I first used it in Vermont, where I lived before coming here. I advise every one to use it, as it is certainly the best cough medicine I have ever known. I have tried nearly all of them at different times.

Yours respectfully, MOSES GRAY,

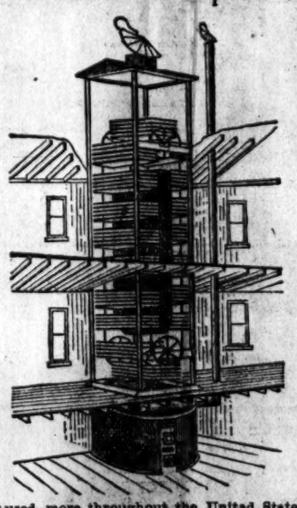
-:- The Williams Fruit Evaporator -:-



Is used more throughout the United States than any machine made. It will evaporate more fruit for the amount of tray surface with less labor than any other machine. Therefore it is the most economical and cheapest. Hundreds of them are in use throughout the Northern States for apples, while in the peach district in the Southern States there are ten to one of any other machine made. They are pronounced by those who use them, and have used others in connection, to be the only practical machine. Last year, 1888, seven were bought by different parties in Ventura county, this State, the same parties owning machines, gave preference to the Williams, as others have done before them. I have a carload of these machines on hand now, but as there are several parties about purchasing now, as there will be more orders than I have machines now to fill, some orders will have to be filled at the factory, therefore send in your orders early. Send for catalogue and price-list to

Sewing Machine.

OUR PREMIUM HIGH-ARM SEWING-MACHINE!

TESTIMONIALS:

Following are letters received by the Times-Mirror Company from subscribers who have purchased the Premium Sewing-machine through us:

"GIVING PERFECT SATISFACTION."

J. W. Ross, Pasadena, writes: The Times-Mirror Sewing-machine is giving perfect satisfaction; in my opinion it is as good as any $65 machine. I have not done any heavy work on it yet, but I think it will do it all right.

"HIGHLY PLEASED WITH IT."

Mrs. Edwin Brown, Los Angeles: In reply to yours of 23th would state that I am highly pleased with the Premium Sewing-machine I received with the MIRROR. Gives every satisfaction; so easy to learn how to manage; does such excellent work; in fact cannot praise it too much, and would not take twice the amount it cost me.

"THE MORE WE USE IT THE BETTER WE LIKE IT."

Mrs. S. A. Ware, Pasadena: I have used your sewing-machine since last July. The more we use it the better we like it. On fine and heavy work it is splendid. We have tried the attachment. In fact it goes ahead of our advertisement so far.

"LIKE IT BETTER THAN THE $125 SINGER."

Joseph Wilson, Los Angeles: The machine gives entire satisfaction. My wife likes it better than the $125 Singer that it has replaced.

"GIVES GOOD SATISFACTION."

S. W. True, East Los Angeles: We have the High-Arm Machine and use it for light family sewing. It gives good satisfaction.

"RUNS SMOOTH—AND SEWS EVERYTHING BUT BUTTONS."

William P. Wade, Los Angeles: The report of the chief engineer of the sewing department of my domestic establishment is to the effect that the sewing-machine lately furnished by you for $22 arrived in good order and in due time, and has given entire satisfaction. It runs lightly and with very little noise and performs to perfection all kinds of sewing work with the exception of buttons. [When the freight is paid to Los Angeles by the Times-Mirror Company the price is $35.50.]

"TRIED 'EM ALL AND LIKES THE MIRROR MACHINE BEST."

William L. Price, 218 Temple street, Los Angeles: My wife tried several $75 machines, and chose the MIRROR Premium Sewing-machine as an equal to the best in the market, for one-fourth of the money. It is perfect in all particulars, and admired by all who see it. My wife has been using it several months, and we both cheerfully recommend it to the public as represented.

"EQUAL IN WORKMANSHIP AND MATERIAL AS THE HIGH-PRICED ARTICLE."

C. B. Spencer, Los Angeles: Having sold hundreds of the Remington Sewing-machines for $65, which you are now offering with the WEEKLY MIRROR at $22, [$35.50 when freight is paid to Los Angeles], I wish to say that the machine you offer is identically the same as the high-priced article, both as to material, workmanship and capacity. Being a resident here and an experienced sewing-machine man, I will take pleasure in instructing any one in working the machine, in this place or vicinity.

"IS DELIGHTED WITH IT."

Mrs. J. W. Stringfield, Pomona: The High-arm Mirror Sewing-machine came in good time, in excellent condition, without scratch or blemish, and I am delighted with it. We believe the machine is all that you recommend it to be, and think it a rare opportunity for those who may want a machine to get a first-class one cheap.

"PERFECT IN EVERY RESPECT."

Mrs. E. C. Cranston, Norwalk: The High-arm Premium Machine arrived in prime condition, and is perfect in every respect. Freight $2.50, with first cost added, making $22.50 for as good a machine as is usually sold through agents for $75. Well pleased. [$35.50 when freight is paid to Los Angeles.]

"VERY MUCH PLEASED WITH IT."

Mrs. Martha Allison, Downey: I am very much pleased with my machine as far as I have used it, and feel safe in saying that I have just as good a machine as if I had given $65 for it. Shall advise any of my friends to try this before buying any other, as I think it is fully as good as represented.

"RUNS LIGHT AND EASY—DOES ITS WORK WELL."

S. M. Shaw, Pasadena: I can say in regard to the machine that it is well liked. It runs light and easy, and does its work well. It is a very cheap machine at the price you furnish it.

"EQUAL TO THE BEST SHE EVER USED."

William T. Parcel, Compton: The High-arm Sewing-machine ordered from your company was received in good order, and Mrs. Parce says it is equal to the best of any other kind she has ever used.

"PROVES SATISFACTORY."

W. F. Beadley, San Gabriel: The sewing machine we received through your office proves satisfactory.

"WIFE THINKS IT THE BEST SHE EVER USED."

J. W. McLellan, Tustin City: We received Premium Sewing-machine through your office, and my wife thinks it the best she ever used; consequently are well pleased.

"SUPERIOR IN SOME RESPECTS TO THE BEST."

S. A. Mattison, Los Angeles: My wife and daughter are well pleased with your Times-Mirror Sewing-machine. They have used several of the best makes of machines, and yet say your machine is superior in some respects to those they have used, and in no way inferior. They were at first afraid, as many are, no doubt, that it is too cheap to be first-class, but are now satisfied that it is as good as machines costing three or four times as much.

"FRIGHTENED THE SCREW AND SHE RUNS ALL RIGHT."

I. A. Myers, Newhall: Yours of the 1st inst. received. Will say in reply that soon after I wrote you I discovered the cause of the trouble. The little tension screw in the shuttle had worked loose and was nearly out, and the shuttle thread, in sewing fast, would catch on the screw and break. I tightened the screw and it now works like a charm; no more breaking thread or irregularity of stitch.

"ONE OF THE BEST INVESTMENTS THEY EVER MADE."

Mrs. U. L. Shaffer, Orange: We received our High-armed Sewing-machine in good order, and I am very much pleased with it, and consider it one of the best investments we ever made. It is nicely finished, and runs strong and light, doing nice work. Any one needing a good machine I do not think can do better than invest $22 in the machine and MIRROR, for $35.50 when the Company pays freight to Los Angeles.]

"MORE THAN SATISFIED AND GLADLY RECOMMENDS IT."

Martha M. Shaffer, Orange: I thank you for sending to me for testimonials, as I have set my new machine in the parlor without even threading it, as I was very busy and had a good machine ready for work and used to running. So I did not take time to do anything with the new one until I received your letter. Then I brought mine and went to running it to test it. I was more than satisfied, and gladly recommend it to those who need a machine. I think I would have gained time to have used it long ago.

"EQUAL TO ANY $65 MACHINE."

Mrs. A. W. Worm, Los Angeles: For the benefit of those who stand in need of a good sewing-machine, I will say that after using the Premium Machine for about four months, I find it equal to any $65 machine I have seen.

Spring Disorders

Shattered nerves, tired brain, impure blood, debilitated system, all are the natural outcome in the Spring. A medicine must be used, and nothing equals Paine's Celery Compound. We let others praise us—you cannot help believing a disinterested party.

Brigadier-General W. L. Greenleaf, Burlington, Vt., writes: "I have used Paine's Celery Compound on several occasions, and always with benefit. Last spring, being very much run down and debilitated, I commenced taking it. Two bottles made me feel like a new man. As a general tonic and spring medicine I do not know of its equal."

"I have used two bottles of your Paine's Celery Compound, and it has given entire satisfaction as an appetizer and blood purifier."
T. L. BERNER, Watertown, Dakota.

Paine's Celery Compound

is prescribed by physicians, recommended by druggists, endorsed by ministers, praised by users, and guaranteed by the manufacturers, as a spring medicine which will do all that is claimed for it. Use it this spring, and see how quickly it tones you up.

University Place.

UNIVERSITY PLACE, April 23.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] Last Sunday evening the Young Ladies' Auxiliary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society held an interesting service in the University Church. The young ladies had tastefully decorated the church, the most noticeable pieces being a great Easter egg made of marguerites, a harp of roses, a cross of calla lilies, and a pure white sea gull suspended above the pulpit. The exercises consisted of an address by Mrs. Fisher, on the "Missionary Significance of Easter;" another on "Mission Work in Mexico," by Miss Lindley; a third on the "Bareilly School for Girls," by Mrs. Dougherty. All were listened to with great interest by the large audience which filled the church. This flourishing society was organized only six weeks ago, and is, we believe, the first one of the kind on the coast.

The young ladies of the Athens Literary Society who gave the Gypsy Carnival with such marked success, April 18th, have been invited to repeat the programme at the Flower Festival on Saturday evening.

Dean Matthew departed by steamer this morning for a ten days' trip in the north, in the course of which he will visit the University of California at Berkeley, the University of the Pacific at San José, and other educational institutions, for the purpose of studying their methods.

April 30th, the anniversary of Washington's inauguration, will be a holiday at the University.

President Bovard is counsel for the prosecution in the unsavory James case at Long Beach.

At about 10 o'clock this forenoon a shed or barn adjoining the blacksmith shop of Mr. Allen on Dana street took fire through the carelessness of some boys who were playing in it, it is said, and was consumed, the shop and house just escaping the same fate. It was rather amusing to see the fire department arrive after the fire had burned itself nearly out, and the question seems pertinent whether this part of the city has adequate protection against fire. It would seem as if the value of the buildings this side of Washington Garden is sufficient to demand an engine-house in the region of Washington street. Under present arrangements almost any house in this entire region could be completely ruined before help could possibly be had from the fire department.

The Rev. T. C. Warner, pastor of University Church, is about to take a step the announcement of which will be a painful surprise to the members of his congregation. Mr. Warner came to Los Angeles from Chattanooga, Tenn., about a year and a half ago, hoping that a change of climate would prove beneficial to his health. In this hope he has been disappointed, and now believes it his duty to return to Tennessee. He has accordingly tendered his resignation to Presiding Elder Van Cleve. Before coming to California Mr. Warner occupied the most prominent pulpits in his conference, and it is said he will, immediately upon his return, take charge of an important church. It is rumored that Dr. Cherrington of San Francisco will be appointed to fill the approaching vacancy in University Church.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

Santa Ana.

SANTA ANA, April 23.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] The Orange County Savings, Loan and Trust Company, recently organized here, is a wideawake institution that has come to stay and evidently means business.

Its stock of $100,000 did not have to go begging, but was eagerly sought after by leading financiers.

With such men as Carey R. Smith for president, I. N. Rafferty for vice-president, C. F. Mansur secretary and cashier, Q. R. Smith assistant cashier, and such stockholders as Dr. Ball, R. E.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

Joe Claverie was arraigned yesterday, and Monday was appointed as the day to plead in the same court.

Albert Cohen, on trial in Judge Chaney's court yesterday for fraudulently voting, was found not guilty by a jury.

The official documents announcing the pardon of Harry Wicks, the gambler-shootist, were received by the Sheriff yesterday.

The ladies of Ballona District Catholic Church have arranged for a ball to be given on the 27th inst. for the benefit of the church. It will be held at Boulevard Pavilion at the home of Mrs. C. C. de Coronel.

The following marriage licenses were issued yesterday: Joseph Logan of Ireland, aged 28, and Louise H. Hisey of Illinois, aged 23; Dr. R. C. Kirkpatrick of Pennsylvania, aged 48, and Willie Smith of Arkansas, aged 24.

In the case of Lee Sam yesterday a demurrer was filed, and the case was transferred to Department No. 6, Superior Court. The case of F. Ancunna was also transferred to Department No. 6, and hearing set for April 29th.

The annual meeting for the election of warders and vestrymen for Christ Church parish for the ensuing year and for delegates to the general election will be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening at Opera-house Hall, the usual place of worship.

A jubilee banquet in celebration of the centennial of the inauguration of President Washington is to be given at the Commercial restaurant on the evening of the 30th inst. It is under the management of the Washington Association.

The Elks hold their fourth social session tomorrow evening at their new hall. Members of the Riley-Woods Combination, The Little Lord Fauntleroy Company and the Two Pair Company will be present, and Martin Lehman will preside.

A short time ago S. K. Adams sued H. C. Register for $60 due for painting banners and signs during the last primary election. Justice Lockwood nonsuited Adams and ordered him to pay defendant's costs. A stay of execution for five days was granted him.

Justice Savage gave judgment to the plaintiff in the suit of White vs. Smith yesterday. It appears that Smith, acting as a deputy sheriff, levied on two barrels of whisky and one iron safe on March 28th, the property being valued at $250. Damages to the amount of $50 were also allowed.

Before Judge Clark yesterday the suit of E. J. Baldwin et al. against John H. Temple was continued for the term, by consent, to be reset. Baldwin claims that on January 1, 1884, the defendant took possession of a strip of land owned by him, being a part of the Rancho la Merced, in the county of Los Angeles. He also asks for damages to the amount of $2000.

A motion before the Board of Supervisors yesterday morning to employ Lawson's patrol to look after the different county offices at night time was unanimously carried. Supervisor Perry, chairman of the board, in speaking of the merits of the patrol, stated that a number of dollars was saved to him quite recently by one of the patrolmen finding a lot of valuable merchandise on the sidewalk in front of his premises.

Joseph Gardener sued W. S. Mills and A. H. Donecken, proprietors of the Omaha Brick Manufacturing Company, in Justice Savage's court, yesterday. The plaintiff claims that on May 21st last the defendants made an agreement with him, employing him for one year at the rate of $2.50 a day. After working steadily up to March 19, 1889, they dismissed him without cause. Gardener claims $45 for back salary due and $130, the amount for the uncompleted contract. Arguments will be heard today.

CATARRH

Throat Diseases,

And all the various diseases of the Head, Throat and Chest.

Together with diseases of the Eye, Ear and Heart, also diseases of females, successfully treated by

M. HILTON WILLIAMS,

M. D., M. C. P. S. O.,

Office, Hollenbeck Block, corner Second and Spring streets, Los Angeles, Cal.

All diseases of the respiratory organs treated by the most improved medical inhalations and the Compound Oxygen treatment, which has such a world-wide reputation in lung and nervous affections.

We take pleasure in announcing to the public that we combine the Compound Oxygen Treatment with our system of practice in the cure of asthma, bronchitis, consumption, dyspepsia, insomnia, sore throat, catarrh, rheumatism and nervous prostration.

The testimonials given below are very fair samples as to the time required for effecting cures in these troublesome cases:

LOS ANGELES, CAL., Nov. 14, 1888.

This is to certify that I had been afflicted with asthma and emphysema of the lungs for about 24 years. My disease was contracted in the army. I had tried almost every known remedy, both here and in the East, but nothing ever gave me permanent relief until I tried Dr. William's Compound Oxygen and other remedies. It is only about one month since I began the treatment, and already I feel like another man. I was so bad that for days I could hardly breathe, but I do positively feel that I am cured. The difficulty of breathing has been entirely removed, and I feel as well as I ever did in every respect.

JOHN W. HOLT,
Employe City Water Works,
265 Bellevue Avenue, Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 16, 1888.

It is a source of gratification to me to be able to testify to the very satisfactory cure Dr. M. Hilton Williams has effected in my case with his Compound Oxygen and other inhalations. After suffering several years with catarrh of the head and throat, also bronchitis, which caused a very aggravating cough, I applied to Dr. Williams, who effected an entire cure in just two months from the time I began the treatment. I take pleasure in recommending Dr. Williams as a Christian gentleman and a conscientious and skillful physician, whose cures seem almost marvelous in cases of consumption, asthma, bronchitis and catarrh.

MRS. L. A. THURSTON,
1422 Temple st., Los Angeles, Cal.

I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations aid in dissolving the mucous and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing else can do with the same success. The very best references from those already cured.
